SHARMAINE REILLY SELECTED IN THE 2018 BENDIGO PIONEER GIRLS TAC CUP TEAM

Sharmaine's football journey started off when she was very young, taking part in Auskick here in Lockington.

She went on to play 2 seasons of football for the Lockington Bamawm United Under 14 boy's team (2015 and 2016).

During the first season that she played, she was awarded best 1st year player, then the following year she went on to win runner-up in the best and fairest.

She wasn't able to continue playing for the LBU Under 14 boys the next year, so she looked into where she could play Youth Girls Football.

Sharmaine played a season for the Under 18 Echuca Youth Girls team in 2017 where she was awarded Best Team Player. She was also the highest polling Echuca Youth Girls player in the League best and fairest vote count.

Not long after the 2017 Echuca Youth Girls season came to an end, her coach selected her to try out for the 2017 girls Under 16 V/Line Cup team.

Sharmaine went to the tryouts, and was lucky enough to be selected to play in Gippsland for the Bendigo Pioneer girls at the V/Line Cup carnival. The Carnival was held in September (2017).

The team won both games at the carnival which were played in Traralgon and Morwell against Goulburn Murray and North East Border. Sharmaine was named as Bendigo Pioneer Girls best in both games.

She then started training, and tried out for the 2018 TAC Cup Girls Bendigo Pioneers team in November, 2017. The training sessions were, and still are, being held in Epsom.

In February 2018, Sharmaine found out that she had been selected in the final squad for the Bendigo Pioneer TAC Cup Girls Program. She has continued training in Epsom to prepare for the season ahead.

She has played 2 practice matches so far for the 2018 Bendigo Pioneer Girls TAC Cup team which were held in Wycheproof and Craigieburn.

Sharmaine played her first TAC Cup game on the 3rd of March against the Western Jets in Epsom which they won.

She will now train hard, and continue on her journey to see what the future holds in football.

Sharmaine says she has always had a love for the game, and is very thankful for all of the help and support that she has received, especially from all the coaches.

Congratulations Sharmaine on such a great achievement.

Hello everyone,

While 1918 began with the "Great War" still in progress, news from Europe, published in the Weekly Times on 5 January that year, sounded encouraging. The New Year brought a statement from Lord Derby, the British Minister for War, expressing his hope that the troops would be coming home that year. And, Lord Robert Cecil, then Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs in Britain, whilst admitting that it would be a hard year, felt that, "strengthened by America", the Allied Forces could hope for victory within the coming twelve months.

That same edition of the Weekly Times carried the first full, detailed descriptions to appear in print of the terrible battles that had been fought on the Western Front in September and October in 1917. Written by War Correspondent, Keith Murdoch, these reports would have made difficult reading for the people at home who knew by then that many of their own young men had become casualties of the fighting which the correspondent described.

There was also the news that Russia had experienced a complete military collapse, and that Civil War was proceeding throughout that country. Fighting between the Cossacks and the Bolsheviks had resulted in devastated towns, with homeless families being left to freeze to death. There was little or no food, and agriculture was paralysed. A week later, other news from Europe told of extreme deprivation being experienced in Belgium due to German military oppression, and there was an item that the great bell at the Cologne Cathedral, weighing 56 tons, was melted down "for war purposes" after ringing in the New Year.

The Weekly Times of 12 January, 1918, brought the opportunity of reading first-hand news of difficulties being felt in Germany. The Germans had released some prisoners of war; among them, thirty-four Australians, who were then in hospital in England. They described Germany as "cold, barren and hungry". The Australians described prison rations as having been "inadequate in quantity, and unspeakably bad in quality", but they themselves had been kept "wonderfully supplied" with food parcels sent to them by the Australian Red Cross. While German civilians seemed to them to have plenty of money, food could not be bought. The Australian prisoners had often been begged to sell their "leavings", but they preferred to give whatever help they could to their less fortunate Russian fellow-prisoners who, being solely reliant on prison fare, were being left to die "like sheep in drought time." The Russians had been denied outside news, and had not even heard the fragmentary details emerging of the Civil War in their homeland. The Australians regarded the deprivation of any form of news from outside, for which they "longed intensely", as having been the hardest part of their own prison experience. It also seemed to them that the German authorities controlled the extent of information made available to their own fighting men, who continued to fight in the belief that they "must do so to save their country from British aggression."

Back in Australia, New Year 1918 seems to have begun fairly quietly for the people of this district, though the Rochester Express reported that a thunderstorm at Tennyson on 8 January had started a couple of small fires. It was also reported that, owing to the large number of State School male teachers who were currently enlisted, more lady teachers would be expected to take up duties of Squad drill and culture exercises. Classes for Victorian teachers were to commence soon. The Bendigo Advertiser, on 8 January 1918, carried a report that Mr and Mrs Holland, of Piavella, had received news from their son, Sergeant George Holland, who was recovering from wounds incurred whilst fighting in France, and that he had been awarded the Military Medal. Lance Corporal William Green of Warragamba, had written to his family, too. He was engaged in "machine gun work" at the front, and wrote of having been twice "over the top".

Late in January, the Express carried a report of two Bamawm settlers having been fined in the Rochester Police Court for allowing irrigation water to flood a road, making it dangerous for traffic. "The chairman of the bench said that flooding of roads was becoming flagrant on the part of irrigationists".

Other local news reported by the Express concerned a public meeting of the debenture holders, in connection with the Barendella Public Hall, which was held in the hall on 29 January, Mr Len Clarke in the chair. The first business was to appoint a chairman to receive the resignations of the old trustees and Mr L. Clarke was elected to the position. The meeting then discussed a new scheme proposed for raising funds to pay off the debt on the hall. An election of a new seven-member board of management, then took place with Messrs L. Clarke, D. Fletcher, T. Bunbury, W. Murray, T. Windle, W. Williams and A. Butcher being elected.

An Express report of 98 points (24.5 mm) of rain at Tennyson, on 29 January, brought the month to an end. Wheat yields for the season were reported to have been disappointing.

This must be all for now.

'Bye until next time,

Marg O'Brien

School News

Our Gr 1/2 students having fun in the Art Room making and decorating boomerangs.

On Friday 16th March, Australians stood united in their communities to celebrate the eighth national day of action against bullying and violence (NDA). Our students took part in various activities centred around bullying, with our Gr 5/6 students leading our assembly with an anti – bullying presentation. Prep class with their Bullying.No Way! Poster

Our students enjoyed an incursion at school on Friday titled "Brilliant at being Resilient."

Brilliant at Being Resilient used stories, poetry, fractured fairy tales, illusions and loads of humour to explore the value of resilience and tolerance as well as getting across the message that bullying is not acceptable. Illusions are a great way of showing that what you see is not always what has actually happened.

When one very impressive illusion is explained and shown to be so simple, the question asked is 'how could you miss that?'

Of course it depends on where you are as to what you see. This leads into showing students that there is often another side to a story.

By combining the ideas of resilience and tolerance with perspective, the show aims to get children questioning the world around them and realizing their place and contribution, rights and responsibilities

Grant guidelines and application form can be downloaded from council's website and are available from customer service centres. Applications close Friday, 13 April.

DO YOU KNOW AN AMAZING VOLUNTEER?

Do you know a person or group in the community who deserves recognition for their outstanding volunteer work? If so, nominate them for a Campaspe Shire Volunteer Award, now open. REMINDER TO ALL DOG OWNERS

Under council's General Local Law No. 8, people are responsible for removing their dog's waste (poo) from any nature strip, footpath, road, park, public place and private property. Furthermore, pet owners must carry a "device suitable for the removal of any excrement" (poo bag) and produce it when requested by Local Laws Officers. Those who do not clean up after an animal in their care, can be issued with an on-the-spot fine of $300.

HOME HOSTS SOUGHT

Would you like to host a Japanese guest in your home? Expressions of Interest are sought from families able to host a delegate from Shiroy, Japan, for three nights, arriving Friday, 11 May. As part of the sister city program, a welcome night is held with all delegates and host families, otherwise delegates will be involved in a busy program, visiting a variety of attractions in the area. If you are interested or would like more information, please call Bobbi Aitken, 5481 2206.

KEEP RECYCLING

As news of China's restrictions on recycling spills into the media, Campaspe Shire Council is urging the community to continue recycling household waste as there is no current impact on its residents. Council is in a fortunate position as its waste contractor, Veolia, has a local materials recovery centre in Echuca. This means materials collected from our kerbside recycle bins are processed locally, with the majority of recovered materials ending up in local markets, and in Melbourne and Sydney. This means, Campaspe Council is not as reliant on export markets. It's business as usual and there is no need for concern. We ask our residents to continue recycling as normal and collection services will remain unchanged

The Kotta Hall is the venue for the next production of a play by Hugh O'Brien titled "Farmer will swap combine harvester for wife"

This is the second production by the B-BAC players from Boort, Buckrabunyule and Charlton. They rehearse in the 108 year old Buckrabunyule Hall.

Hugh O'Brien has written plays for small country organisations which are simple, short and fairly easy to perform. This play has one set only and seven scenes. The purpose of Hugh's writing is to help little country communities with some entertainment. From Queensland, Hugh O'Brien has had a career as a speech writer and playwright.

This play has different facets from comedy to very serious contemporary issues and is not suitable for children under 15years. It is suggested that children could patronise the film night being held at the Heritage Centre in Lockington on the same night.

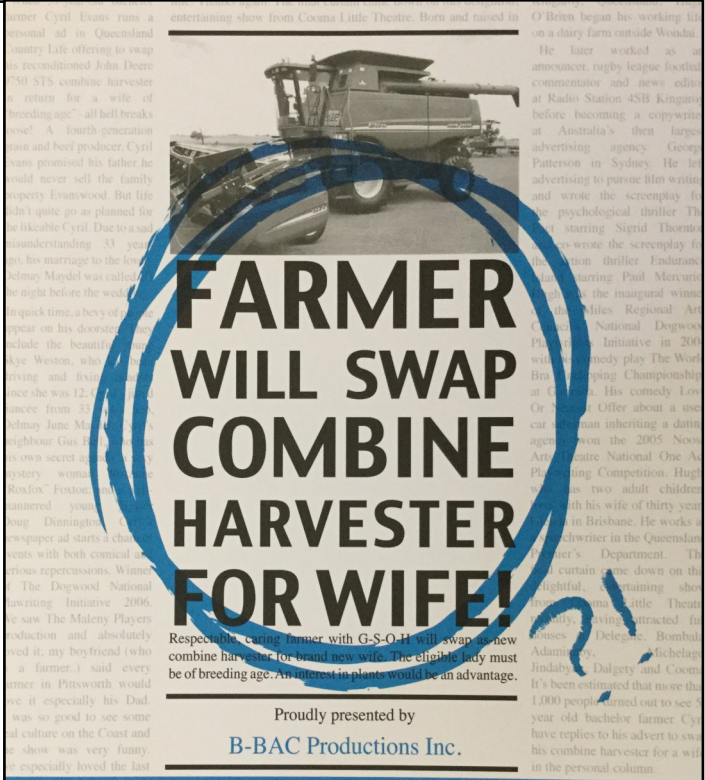

When 59-year-old bachelor farmer Cyril Evans runs a personal ad in Queensland Country Life offering to swap his reconditioned John Deere 9750 STS combine harvester in return for a wife of breeding age – all hell breaks loose!

A fourth-generation grain and beef producer, Cyril Evans promised his father he would never sell the family property Evanswood. But life didn't quite go as planned for the likeable Cyril. Due to a sad misunderstanding 33 years ago, his marriage to the lovely Delmay Maydel was called off the night before the wedding.

In quick time, a bevy of people appear on his doorstep. They include the beautiful young Skye Weston, who has been driving and fixing headers since she was 12; Cyril's jilted fiancée from 33 years ago, Delmay June Maydel; Cyril's neighbour Gus Bell, who has his own secret agenda; a sexy mystery woman Roxanne? Roxfox? Foxton; and a well-mannered young grazier Doug Dinnington.

Cyril's newspaper ad starts a chain of events with both comical and serious repercussions.

Winner of The Dogwood National Playwriting Initiative 2006

LOCKINGTON BOWLS CLUB Report March 13:

The club was alive last Tuesday when the women staged the annual Presidents Day of bowls. Several former members enjoyed the day along with Lady President Pauline Humbert and current members with a game of bowls and plenty of laughter and chatter. Included in the list of past members was near 95 years young Madge Cunnington who is celebrating her birthday on Sunday. Gwenda Coghill, Marie O'Brien, Joan Luke, Marie Davie, Rhonda Gallagher, Gwen Haines, Merle Smith, Helen Pitts and Marie Malone returned for the occasion. On the green the cards were fanned and everyone was declared a winner. Humbert thanked all players for their attendance, resulting in a great day.

On Tuesday evening the second round of the Sportspeople night of bowls was held which attracted 29 players for the event. During the past week several members attended district tournaments at Heathcote in the South to Barham in the North. The overall results were not flash but all bowlers enjoyed the hospitality at both locations.

PRESIDENT'S DAY AT LOCKINGTON BOWLS CLUB.

Weather conditions were excellent for President's Day on Tuesday 6th March, when Pauline welcomed 25 bowlers, which included 12 past members from Bendigo, Echuca, Moama, Rochester and Rich River. Six teams enjoyed two games of bowls, with plenty of support from the spectators on the sidelines. This was followed by a delicious luncheon served up by the current members. After a suspenseful card draw Pauline presented prizes to the winning team skipped by Phyllis Macfarlane with Lorraine Appleby and newcomer Carmel White. Runners-up were Rhonda Gallagher (s), Joan Luke and another newbie Trish Jones. The spider was won by Bet Mustey, with Bev. Brereton taking out the roll to the ditch. Other winners were Annette Brereton lucky plate, Gwen Haines lucky cup, Rose Sinclair lucky chair, lucky spot Mary Dullard and lucky numbers Lorraine Appleby, Helen Pitts and Marie Malone. A special gift was presented to Madge

Cunnington who celebrates her 95th birthday on this Sunday the 18th March. Everyone had a wonderful day with lots of laughter and friendship shared by all. Thank you to all concerned who played a part in making the day such a great success.

Report March 19:

The women had a good roll up for their weekly Triples on Tuesday. At the completion of play the winning trio included Kathryn Tibbs, Annette Brereton and Kath Palmer (s) in a brilliant display from all bowlers.

On Saturday the club staged the twentieth running of the popular Cunnington Cup Mixed Pairs tournament.

Twenty teams contested the event and resulted in four undefeated pairs. The winners were decided on a Points system with Helen Holzer and Phillip Cunnington taking out first prize on 83 points ahead of second placed Kath and Robert Wastell from Moama on 79 points.

Consolation prizes were handed to Lyn Snell and Jim Ferrier from City of Echuca on 78 points, while last years winners Leice Roney and Tony Hawley (City of Echuca) finished with 77 points. Special competition winner was Tom Davis. Steven Cunnington assisted with the presentations and thanked the club for supporting the day over the past twenty years. Club President Davis thanked all bowlers for their support and thanked the Cunnington family for sponsoring the day. Greenkeeper Ian Johnson was acknowledged for his great effort in preparing the excellent greens.

Last Tuesday evening the final night of the Sportspeople bowls was held with 32 players on the green.

The winning rink was Annie Haines, Rhys Bradley, Michael Lyons and Alan Kauffman (s) with 2 wins plus 17 shots. Second place went to Mary Thomas, Tom Davis, Amy Eade, Don Smith (s) 2 wins plus 14 shots ahead of David Johnson, Doug Pearse, Jeff Carnie, Ian Haines (s) 2 wins plus 8 shots.

Tom Davis congratulated all players for participating during the three week series and trusted that they enjoyed the event and may think of bowls in the future. Over the series the Ian Haines rink was declared the Most Consistent team with five wins from six games. Les Brereton was thanked for managing the sausage sizzle on the nights.

In the club competitions a couple of new bowlers fought out the B Grade Championship over 27 ends.

John van den Bosch and Andrew Harris displayed some extreme talent during the game where Van Den Bosch controlled the majority of the contest after leading 11-3 after ten ends before extending that lead to 21-7 on the 18th end. Harris made mini comeback as Van Den Bosch went on to win the title 25-15.

Congratulations to both bowlers on their display of bowling.

“ROCHESTER RAMBLING ROSES” ARE RED AT CIURLEO’S

Six members of “Rochester Rambling Roses”, aka Red Hat Society, who enjoy donning their red and purple and each other’s company, meet monthly for lunch somewhere. On Tuesday, March 13 they chose “Ciurleo’s” Lockington’s Ice Cream & Waffle House to spoil themselves on some of John’s selection. Some of the ladies have titles, ranging from “Baroness Read-a-lot”, “Lady Mary”, “Lunch-a-lot”, “Princess Jeannie”, and “Dame Maggie”, so it reads like a good fun group.
