TUTU'S ATTRACT DONATIONS

Jenny Mustey wrote on Facebook: 'This October Garry and I are participating in the Great Cycle Challenge and we would love it if you could support us with a small donation. We will be riding 500km during October and aim to raise at least $500 for the Children's Medical Research Institute. Our team page is <https://greatcyclechallenge.com.au/Teams/MusteyMeanderers> We may not be fast or fashionable but it's something that we enjoy doing and we look forward to supporting this worthy cause.'

Well 'fashionable' it was – John Ciurleo told Garry he would donate $100 if he rode his bike wearing a Tutu, and Mike Stebbings told Clare Wickham he would donate $100 if she rode alongside Garry also wearing a Tutu. Jenny rode as support, but not in 'fashion'. Their T-shirts read: '1 month, 1 goal, Fight kids cancer'.

The ride on Saturday 29th began and ended at 'Ciurleo's' where donations were made whilst coffees and icecreams were enjoyed. Further donations can be made via the website as mentioned above; <https://greatcyclechallenge.com.au/Teams/MusteyMeanderers>.

ANOTHER LOCAL STARS IN PREMIERSHIP SIDE

Former Lockington Football Under 17 Premiership Captain of 2010 Hayden Chappel wins best on ground in 2018 Grand Final in the North West League A.F.L of N.S.W.

After Captaining the Lockington Under 17 to the 2010 Premiership Hayden was poached by Mitiamo in the Loddon Valley League, where he went on to win the Rising Star award for the Loddon Valley League 2011.

Work took Hayden north to Inverell N.S.W not far from the Queensland border, where he joined the Inverell "Saints" in 2013.

Hayden played in the 2013 and 2014 Grand finals where they got pumped by Armidale.

Hayden said "It was good to get out there and have a 16 point win over Gunnedah." Chappel's job wasn't easy in the final when Gunnedah "Bulldogs" captain was sent out to tag him, "It changes the game a little bit." Hayden said. But, after the 2018 triumph over Gunnedah, Hayden not only has a premiership medal, but also the Graham Nuttall Medal for best on ground in the Grand Final, as well as the Best and Fairest for Inverell.

Hello Everyone,

A hundred years ago, people living here in our district would have been hoping each day to hear that the long months of the Great War had finally come to a conclusion. All indications were that an armistice was inevitable; only the formalities needed to be addressed but, as late as 29 October, 1918, it was still uncertain whether Germany would accept President Wilson's terms. These terms – a list of fourteen principles for peace negotiations – had been outlined by United States President Wilson in January, 1918. They had now been put to the Germans in a strongly worded document, commended by Allied leaders for its use of "language that [was] becoming necessary in dealing with people who insist on being evasive." However, on 31 October, the Bendigo Independent reported that the Versailles Conference had agreed on an armistice, the terms of which would be considered by the military. Final peace terms were to be submitted to Germany simultaneously with the armistice.

A peace declaration was confidently expected; so much so that, on 21 October, a public meeting convened by Cr Jas. Martin was held in the Bamawm Hall to decide what was going to be done in Bamawm by way of peace celebrations. According to the Rochester Express of 26 October, those present unanimously resolved that the proceedings would take the form of a procession of decorated vehicles, etc., round the reserve grounds. This would be followed by a picnic, with a concert in the evening, and the night would conclude with a bonfire. "The date of the event was left in the hands of General Foch, though he was not present at the meeting." [Ferdinand Foch was the French general who served as the Supreme Allied Commander during the First World War.] The committee decided to hold the celebrations on the day following the announcement in the daily papers of the declaration of peace, unless that should be a Saturday, in which case the celebrations would be held on Monday.

On Thursday, 31 October, 1918, the Bendigo Independent published a report, relayed by Reuters on Tuesday, from Washington, United States, that "the terms on which Germany may contain an armistice have been concluded and have been signed by the Allies in Paris... If accepted, the reply suggesting the settling for peace, or the desire to fight on, may also be received in 24 hours." And so the long wait went on. At home in Australia, and particularly in northern Victoria, it was 'Show' season and the Elmore district held its Annual Show on 6 November, 1918. Though the weather was fine, entries were slightly down on the previous year but all were of high quality. Results published by the Bendigo Independent on 7 November, show that some entrants from our area did very well. John Mitchell of Piavella was particularly successful in the sheep section, while P Mitchell enjoyed similar success with his entries in the poultry section. Others who won awards were the Worner Family of Tennyson, who exhibited their pigs, and T O'Brien of Pannooabamawm, who entered his dog.

Quoting from an article published on Monday, 4 November, 1918, by The Times, of London, the Independent had reported on 6 November, that, whilst twenty-four leaders of Europe and America sat at the Conference table, drawing up terms whereby the foundations of the new Europe were to be laid, it would be folly to predict that the delegates to the Versailles Conference were agreed on all questions. But it still gave cause to hope. The Cohuna Farmer's Weekly suggested that that week might "prove to be one of the most memorable and momentous in the military and political history of the world."

It is not surprising that people were in a highly excitable state and, on Friday, 8 November, 1918, there were celebrations – yet again! – at false news of the signing of the Armistice. Once more the news came via Vancouver to Melbourne, and it was then conveyed by telegraph and telephone to Bendigo, where it caused "wild rejoicing". Local residents flocked to the heart of the city; a "scratch" band played and marched through the streets; and patriotic addresses were delivered. The arrival of special editions of two Melbourne daily newspapers, featuring scare headings announcing peace, appeared to confirm the news which was, by then, being denied by people from the Bendigo Advertiser. The Advertiser had received an official message of denial of the rumour from the State Office, Washington. Finally, this news, coupled with the recall of the special scare editions of the Melbourne dailies, convinced most people that their merry-making had been premature, as the Advertiser reported in its edition of Saturday, 9 November.

That same edition of the Advertiser carried the news that Rochester had been similarly misinformed, and had been once again carried away by a false report. "The rumours that the German envoys had accepted the armistice terms spread early, and caused unlimited joy and enthusiasm in the town. Bells were rung and kerosene tins banged. Local lassies paraded the streets wildly ringing table bells and blowing kazoo noise-producers. Staid citizens joined in the rejoicing, and the town went mad with enthusiasm... At about 11 a.m. Mr. Patrick Keogh, president of the Rochester Shire, who had been summoned from Nanneella, and Cr. T. McMaster, who was recalled from Ballendella, endeavoured to get corroboration of the rumours on the 'phone before taking civic action. Eventually Cr. Keogh, addressing a large and excited crowd from the steps of the Shire Hall, stated that the news lacked confirmation."

'Bye for now,

Marg O'B

LES & LORRIE'S LOVE LASTS LIFE-LONG

On 27 September, 1958 wedding bells rang out at Nathalia's Holy Trinity Church for the wedding of Lorraine Dulcie Dohnt and Albert Leslie Forster. Lorrie's gown of 'Flock nylon' was made by a Mrs. Bennett of Nanneella. The dress later was recycled into a christening gown for her granddaughter, but the jacket is still in one piece. After a honeymoon in Canberra they dairy farmed at Patho for 20 years, then moved to another farm at Bamawm for 25 years. The Forster's had three sons, Colin, Gary (who died from a motor bike accident, aged 20), and Jeffrey; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren who love visiting, to be spoilt, and to play in the great Lions Apex Park next door to the Water Wheel Court unit into which Les & Lorrie moved four years ago.

LOCKINGTON & DISTRICT LIVING HERITAGE COMPLEX INC. AGM PRESIDENTS REPORT 2017-2018 (Condensed)

Another year has passed and we are all a little bit older (and harder to get on with!?)

Three truckloads of tractors and the little McKay Harvester were taken to the 2017 Elmore Field Days, where we were very well received. The Bendigo Advertiser wanted a story on the little harvester so Gordon McKay gave them a very good story on its early history. Its humble beginning in a smithy or blacksmith shop at Drummartin, then moving to Ballarat and then to Sunshine. We thank the three tractor carriers, Andrew Shotton, Ian Lonsdale and the Chappel Brothers for their help.

We have purchased the Heritage Complex from the Shire and we thank them for their help in its final stages.

We had 800 to 900 patrons visiting the Complex who seem to enjoy themselves when they see what's here.

Lockmore Financial Services grant money helped us restore the two Postmaster General's workman's huts, which are finished now and look very good. One is a Telephone Room, while the other is a schoolroom, without the Teacher. The Railway Building has been decorated by the Lockington Masonic Lodge Brethren.

We travelled to John and Sue Cox's place for the first part of our Christmas celebration, inspected their tractors, travelling houses and much other of their memorabilia that they have, then saw Sue's very find Cross stitch and the dolls. Lunch was enjoyed at the Lockington Hotel.

At our Biggest Morning Tea Sue Cox displayed her Cross stitch. We thank Sue and John for helping to make a very good morning, raising approximately $350-00.

We ran our 21st Annual Tractor and Small Engine Rally again this year. A very good participation of exhibitors and a good crowd to see what was on show.

I thank the Committee for their help and good work done around the Complex, and all the individual helpers that came and helped throughout the year when we have had large numbers of people coming to the museum for tour & food.
Joe Chappel, President.

ELECTION OF OFFICE BEARERS

Lockmore Financial Services Director, Graeme Wood, who presented the committee with a certificate of their successful grant application to purchase a Freezer and Bunting, chaired the election of Office Bearers: President – Joe Chappel, Vice Presidents – Senior: Des Pentreath, Junior: "Jack" Oliver, Secretary – Beryl Marshall, Treasurer – Lindsay Govett, Catering Director – Julie Chappel.

LIFE MEMBERSHIPS PRESENTED AT HERITAGE COMPLEX AGM

In presenting Life Membership certificates to Fenton Phillips and Des Pentreath, Joe Chappel said:

"Two Heritage stalwarts have been here ever since its inception in 1993 when the premises were first thought about for a museum. Mind you it was a far cry from what you see now. After all it was cared for by two ladies in their 90's and I can well understand how it got a little run down. Nevertheless everything that was supposed to happen did. The Shire of Rochester purchased the building, then the Heritage ran the museum. Fenton was the first President, and Des was in charge of repairs. Now 25 years later they are both still with the Heritage and very fitting that we give them both Life Membership. These two are the only ones of the original committee still on the board. Congratulations."

BREAKING DOWN COUNTRY STUDENT BARRIERS

Thursday, 27th September 2018

Rural students choosing to study away from home at the completion of their secondary schooling will be better supported to settle into tertiary education under a Liberal Nationals Government.

Moving away from family and friends for university or TAFE study – often in Melbourne or further abroad – is a daunting experience many rural students face alone.

Leader of The Nationals and Member for Murray Plains Peter Walsh said an elected Liberal Nationals Government would provide $600,000 over four years to create the Rural Tertiary Network, a program to link new students with other students who have faced the challenge of settling into university or TAFE away from home.

"The Rural Tertiary Network will provide vital support at one of the most important times of their lives, helping them settle into new surroundings and life away from family and friends," Mr Walsh said.

"This additional support will make sure our local young people have the confidence to tackle university life.

"Only a Liberal Nationals Government will invest in a brighter future for our next generation of regional and rural leaders."

A lack of transitional support for regional students who relocate for study was one of the key challenges identified in a 2013 report from the Regional Policy Advisory Committee.

Other challenges included isolation from friends and family, experiencing independent living for the first time, culture shock and adjusting to an environment where they are one of many high-achieving students.

Shadow Minister for Skills, Training and Apprenticeships Steph Ryan said a pop-up hub would also be established as a base for rural students and their families as they start life at university.

"Young people from country Victoria deserve the same opportunities as city kids," Ms Ryan said.

"The Liberal Nationals will help more students from rural and regional Victoria overcome the obstacles barring them from tertiary education, be it university or vocational education and training.

"Our Rural Tertiary Network will give them the support they need to tackle a tertiary education."

LOCKINGTON BOWLS CLUB REPORT

October 1: The Social bowls on Tuesday was a light roll-up as the majority of the women travelled to Deniliquin for their two-day Medley event. The only highlight to note on return, was the Resting Toucher by Joy Weller that was well rewarded.

Congratulations to the "young guns" in Ray Hanson, Andrew Harris, Kevin Humbert and Ian Johnson (s) on winning the recent Sixty & Over competition at Rochester.

The Friday evening barbeque and practice session attracted good numbers with Kath Palmer winning the lucky members draw. The long awaited CVBD Pennant season begins on Saturday. Both our division two and four teams travel to Rochester and do battle. The Mid-week Pennant starts on Friday 12th October where our division two team plays away at Moama. Best of bowling to all bowlers and have a successful season.

October 8: The opening of the CVBD Pennant season resulted in mixed results for the club with division two suffering a 53/86 loss to Rochester while division four had one winning rink to score a solid 83/68 victory over their Rochester opponents. In division two, both Roly Head and Alan Kauffman received a WB (wrong bias) award.

Details Division four: (I Palmer, O McPhee, K Stout, B Musgrove (s) lost to D Murray 20-23; N Bacon, P Collins, A Harris, P Cunnington (s) l.t. C Usher 30-31; C Stewart, D Thomas, J Van Der Bosch, S Peter (s) d. M Ellis 33-14). A welcome to new members Dave Thomas and Owen "Smiley" McPhee playing their first round of pennant for the club. Both bowlers performed well.

Several members travelled to Elmore on Sunday for the Pairs event.

Russell Shawcross - David Lupton, Tom Davis - Alan Kauffman, Ian Johnson - Don Isgro, Jim Harris - Greg Clymo all battled against huge odds to win the odd game while Bill Musgrove teamed with Rob Holmfield (Rich River) to win the major spoils.

The weekly Friday barbeque and practice session was again well attended with club Secretary Neil Hanes winning the lucky members draw for the second time in three weeks.

The club will hold the fiftieth running of the prestigious Waterwheel Classic Fours on Sunday 21st October starting at 9.30am. This tournament is a gold letter Star event, so early entries are encouraged.

Contact Chris Stewart 5486 2607 for details.

In the CVBD program (Lockington Listed Tournaments) there is a Mixed Pairs event scheduled for Lockington on Sunday 14th October. This is a miss-print.

LOCKINGTON GLOF CLUB REPORT OCTOBER 8, 2018

26/09: The ladies played Captain versus President Day, and this year bragging rights go to Captain Pauline Humbert, whose team defeated President Kathy Connors 3-1. Individual winners were Sue Harris, Annette Brereton and Pauline Humbert, while the solitary winner for the President's team was Sherryl Jones.
