300 WORDS CHALLENGE $10 LOCKY DOLLARS REWARDS

How would you like to earn "Locky Dollars" to spend at participating local businesses, by submitting articles for publication in the Locky News?

Simply send us an article you've written about a function or event you've attended, or about a topic that you think is relevant for our readers, and send us a photo to include in the article. Your article could be about something fun you've done, something funny you've seen, or a memory you'd like to share. We just ask that any articles are relevant to our local community, and that they are fair and not controversial. (our normal conditions of publication apply)

Alternately, we are keen to include some interview style articles about some of our community volunteers. We would like to encourage readers to interview volunteers so we all get to know a bit more about who volunteers for which community groups, and some information about what they do, how long they've done it, and why they do it. We would like to keep all interviews to a standard format so we request everyone use the standard questionnaire which can be found on the lockingtonvic.com.au website, under the Locky News banner.

It's our intention to encourage submission of articles from a broad spectrum of the community, particularly age groups. We would also encourage articles be submitted on a wide variety of topics.

This challenge will be open until at least the end of this year.

How to enter your article in the Challenge?

Write an article 250 to 300 words in length, including the headline, email it to lockynews@bigpond.com with "300 Word Challenge" in the Subject line and attach at least one photo. (preference will be given to articles submitted in Word file format)

All articles must show the author's full name and contact details (address and phone number) although only your name will be published. Kids under 15 years of age must include their age.

Rewards...

Once we publish your article, you will be rewarded with a voucher of $10 Locky Dollars. All Locky Dollar Vouchers MUST be used at the participating business's and within the 30 day validity period. Please note that Locky Dollars ARE NOT exchangeable for cash.

Our intention is to seek sponsorship for the Locky Dollar Rewards, and hopefully make this an ongoing feature of our Locky News.

Participating Businesses:

Ciurleo's Ice Cream & Waffle Shop, Helen's Take-Away, Giddings Co, Maria's Café

If we receive more articles than we can use for an edition of the paper, or we do not have sufficient space available, we reserve the right to hold articles over until the next edition.

As with all submitted articles, we reserve the right to withhold articles which are deemed to be unsuitable.

So... get on your computer and start writing!

We can't wait to start publishing some interesting articles submitted by some new contributors.

Hello again everyone,

In the early weeks of November, 1918, a hundred years ago, Australians were waiting anxiously for some word from Europe to confirm the ever more frequent rumours that a declaration of peace was imminent. In the meantime, it was good to know that many of the original ANZACs, those who had volunteered for service more than four years earlier and who had been involved in fighting at Gallipoli and later on the Western Front, were at last being enabled to return home. Though it seemed probable that the long years of war were coming to an end, news of casualties sustained was still being received.

The Rochester Express of 9 November, published extracts from a long and graphically detailed letter written home by Private Michael Cahill, formerly of Diggora West, who was then in Newbery Hospital, Hertfordshire, England, recovering from a serious wound to his arm. Written on 23 August, the letter described the fierce battles in which Private Cahill and his fellow Australian soldiers had been involved on the Somme and at Amiens. The paper also reported that the name of Private N F Crumpler, of Pannooobamawm, had appeared among the wounded on a recent long list of casualties. Others whose names appeared among those listed as injured were Gunner A T Prater and Private C E Poole, both of Bamawm, while Corporal A E R Mouritz, of Diggora, who had been awarded a Military Medal, was listed as ill.

A Military Medal had also been awarded to Sergeant G Holland, of Piavella, who was one of several Victorians among the first parties of returning ANZACs who had served with distinction. These servicemen were already on board vessels bound for Australia, but the Echuca and Moama Advertiser published on 12 November, stated that an estimated date of their arrival was not yet available. The vessels on which they travelled were likely to be quarantined for several days when they reached their first Australian port of call. This was merely a precaution as the health of the ANZACs, as far as was known, was excellent. However, because of increasing incidence of "Spanish" 'flu around the globe, medical authorities required that a "searching examination" be applied to passengers and crew on board all vessels arriving in Australia from overseas.

An item of local interest published in that same edition of the Echuca and Moama Advertiser concerned flax cultivation. Mr E. Paul, of the Bamawm North State School, had brought to Rochester a fine sample of flax raised in the school garden. It was three feet high and covered with mature seed pods containing the linseed of commerce. Several experiments, which were made with Riga grown seed the previous season, had failed but Mr. Paul's sample thrived splendidly. It was being forwarded to the Closer Settlement and Water Commission authorities, who were interested in the possibilities of flax cultivation as a profitable venture for settlers in the newly established irrigation areas. In other local news, readers of the Rochester Express that week were informed that Mr S T Hardie, one of the earliest district irrigation settlers, who had combined his farming activities with the business of local storekeeper, had disposed of his interests to Mr Carter.

Now, a hundred years after the event, we still commemorate the signing of the Armistice at "the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month." Because they lived half a world away from Europe, where the signing took place, and because their time was hours ahead, the people of Eastern Australia heard the good news late in the evening on 11 November, 1918 – at least a good many of them did. In Melbourne, a special ("Extraordinary") edition of The Herald spread the message, causing general rejoicing there until midnight. Where telephone and/or telegraph facilities were available, the report would have been relayed to residents of regional Victoria at about that same time, though it might well have taken a little longer to reach many of our own families in this part of the State.

In Rochester, "shortly before 9 o'clock on Monday night [11 November, 1918] the clanging of the fire bell announced that the armistice had been signed." Having twice before begun their rejoicing prematurely, it would not be surprising if the Rochester residents were at first, a little cautious about accepting the report as genuine. However, any concerns would have been set to rest a short time later, when the Shire Secretary, Mr H T Downe, in the absence of the Shire President, made the announcement officially to a crowd which had filled the Shire Hall. A meeting was held, and arrangements were made for shops to be closed the following morning, and for a peace procession to be held then. After that, pandemonium reigned and continued intermittently until dawn; a hastily formed procession took to the streets, led by a big drum, beating kerosene tins, ringing bells, and enthusiastic songsters waving flags. Next morning, the fire-bell was tolled for the fallen brave, and a thanksgiving service was held in the Shire Hall. Later that day there was a monster procession, led by the band, to the Showgrounds where a children's picnic was held. In the evening, a grand concert took place at the Shire Hall, followed by a bonfire near the bridge.

There are more local celebrations to come but that must wait until next time,

Marg O'Brien.

CJ HAIR DESIGN

Dear members of the community,
Since the opening of the salon in Lockington nearly 6 months ago I can honestly say things have not gone the way I would have liked for you and me. I would like to apologise for disappointing you when I have had to cancel bookings which were out of my control. Due to a lot of unforeseen problems with my personal life with which I am dealing with, sadly I feel I have to close the salon, effective immediately.
I hope you are fortunate to obtain the services of another hairdresser for you to give your full support.

To those who have supported me whilst I've been here please accept my heartfelt thanks, I've loved working with you.

LOCKINGTON LANDCARE

The Lockington Landcare group in conjunction with grade 3 and 4 from the Lockington Consolidated School had a wonderfully successful day on Thursday 11th October planting trees along the old railway line between O'Donnell Road and Diggora Road.

The landcare members with the use of the 'tree planter' had many trees in the ground when the children arrived. The children with great enthusiasm put tree guards around all the small trees. They then planted a row of trees before enjoying a sausage sizzle and returning to school. Many thanks to Steve Koch for bringing the children out at no cost - and for planting some trees while there!

A big thank you to the group members for all the work prior to the day and on the day.

We will monitor and water trees over the summer to assist in their survival, hopefully with a little help from mother nature!

LOCAL HISTORY GRANTS NOW AVAILABLE

Wednesday 17th October 2018

Leader of The Nationals and Member for Murray Plains Peter Walsh has encouraged community groups across the Murray Plains electorate to apply for a share in $350,000 in funding for projects that preserve and share stories from our past.

Mr Walsh said this latest round of grants of up to $15,000 is available through the Public Record Office's Local History Grants Program for projects that preserve and share stories of our region.

"These grants provide greater accessibility to Victoria's history and aim to support a range of projects that share our history in innovative and engaging ways," he said.

Projects that have been supported in the past through the Local History grants include the digitisation and preservation of newspapers, virtual exhibitions and websites, filmmaking and playwriting, historical walks and restoration of historical costumes.

"The Murray Plains electorate has a rich history with many important stories to share and preserve," Mr Walsh said.

"The Local History Grants Program is open to all not-for-profit community groups and I encourage historical societies, schools, sporting clubs and special interest groups to visit the Public Record Office website to find out more about the program and how it can support them to tell their story," he said.

Mr Walsh said the diversity of the past successful projects shows just how important it is to preserve our history for future generations to enjoy.

Applications for the Local History Grants Program are now open, closing at 5 pm on 18th December 2018.

For further information or to apply, visit prov.vic.gov.au/community/grants-and-awards

FREE SCHOOL BOOKS FOR STUDENTS PROGRAM

Thursday 18th October 2018

Families with high school students in the Murray Plains electorate will no longer have to pay for school textbooks if The Nationals are elected in November.

The Leader of The Nationals and Member for Murray Plains Peter Walsh said the commitment would support families struggling with skyrocketing bills and could save families with two students around $1,000 a year.

"Families are already under a lot of pressure from increases in essential day to day living costs like groceries, petrol, electricity and gas," Mr Walsh said.

"Unfortunately Daniel Andrews has not kept his word on no new taxes under Labor and we have seen 12 new or increased taxes since he was elected, with taxes up by 35 per cent.

"On top of this, average household electricity bills have increased by over $300 a year because of the government's sudden closure of Hazelwood.

"With the added costs of Christmas, a lot of families are doing it tough when the time comes to buy text books for the school year ahead and we want to alleviate some of this pressure so that no student is disadvantaged.

"That's why an elected Nationals Government will help provide support and cost of living relief for families with school children."

The Free School Books for Students program will provide funding to government schools to purchase textbooks for students.

Students will be required to keep and return the books in good condition at the end of the semester or year. While this policy principally applies to hard copy text books, the department will also work with schools to improve the procurement of texts in digital format.

The Free School Books for Students program will start in 2020 for students in years 7-9 and 2021 for year 10-12 students.

Families will benefit by around $476 per year or up to $2,856 during a student's time at secondary school.

The policy will not be means tested or capped on the number of students per family.

LIBERAL NATIONALS TO HAND BUSH NURSING CENTRES FUNDING LIFELINE

Wednesday 17 October 2018

A Liberal Nationals Government will save Bush Nursing Centres at risk of closure under Daniel Andrews.

Bush Nursing Centres (BNCs) provide a critical health service to rural and remote Victorians, but recent changes by the Andrews Labor Government has left them financially unviable and forced to consider closing their doors.

Unlike city-centric Labor, an elected Liberal Nationals Government will make sure BNCs have a secure future.

We'll provide $300,000 in emergency funding over two years to make sure nurses and support staff at Victoria's 15 community-based, not-for-profit BNCs can continue to deliver essential primary health services.

Our commitment will save lives, meaning these services can continue to meet community demand for health care and offer adequate hours of treatment and emergency care.

This funding will give them certainty while we work out the best way to secure ongoing funding for BNCs in the future.

As the only health service in the rural and remote communities they're based in, including Balmoral, Buchan, Dartmoor, Lockington and Walwa, BNCs offer services including allied health, respite care and emergency treatment.

But city-centric Labor's abandoned BNCs, refusing to provide adequate recurrent funding despite its recent changes to the nurses EBA that's pushed up costs and left Centres with no choice but to reduce services or cut back nursing hours.

Better health care for Regional Victoria is just one way a Liberal Nationals Government will decentralise our state into a state of cities – not just a city state.

Only a Liberal Nationals Government will give our Bush Nursing Centres certainty, providing every centre with an additional $10,000 each year over two years as we work out the best way to secure this service into the future.

Comment attributable to Shadow Minister for Country Health Emma Kealy

We know Bush Nursing Centres are a critical health service in rural and remote communities – and we want to keep it that way.

City-centric Labor has refused to provide adequate recurrent funding to Bush Nursing Centres, threatening their ability to provide essential primary health services to rural people.

Good health care is one of the foundations of a community and should be a given – regardless of where you live.

By supporting Victoria's BNCs an elected Liberal Nationals Government will deliver a better deal on health care in our rural and remote communities.

LOCKINGTON BOWLS CLUB REPORT

15.10.2018

Last Tuesday the women enjoyed a game of Pairs for the weekly Social bowls. The winners being Annette Brereton and Phylis MacFarlane (s) in a blistering display of bowling from both women.

In the Mid-week Pennant the women played Moama and lost the battle 52-79. However, the overall margin did not paint a true picture of the closeness of the heads. After trailing by 14 shots at the break, the scores blew out a little in the closing ends. Details: (A Lowrie, L Appleby, M Davis, P Humbert (s) lost 16-18; B Brereton, L Brereton, A Haines, K Palmer (s) lost 19-25; J Weller, A Brereton, L Chugg, P MacFarlane (s) lost 17-35).

In the CVBD Weekend pennant, division two lost a close encounter against Tongala 61-67. The scores at 73 ends of the scheduled 75 were locked together at 61 all. (G Shawcross, D Isgro, D Lupton, G Turner (s) won 25-13; R Head, A Kauffman, R Shawcross, J Harris (s) lost 19-23; F Chugg, L Mc Innes, K Main, I Johnson (s) lost 17-31).

The division four teams combined to score another victory against Tongala. With two rink wins, and a tie they managed a 82-46 win overall. (I Palmer, A Harris, L Brereton, B Musgrove (s) won 38-9; C Stewart, D Thomas, J Van Der Bosch, S Peter (s) won 25-18; D Smith, K Stout, P Collins, P Cunningham (s) drew 19-all).

During the past week several members attended local tournaments and CVBD events. A team of women competed in the CVBD State Triples and won the odd game. In the Sixty and Over competition four teams attended with the overall best result being a fruit-salad - a win, a loss and a tie.

The Friday evening barbeque and practice session attracted a huge gathering with the lucky members number belonging to the absent Geoff Shawcross.

On Sunday the club will hold the prestigious Waterwheel Classic Fours on the fiftieth occasion. Almost a capacity field will compete with the event starting at 9.30am. Contact Chris Stewart 5486 2607 to claim one of the final two places.

A huge week of bowls at the Lockington club this week. On Tuesday the women had a fine field for the weekly Social Triples. The winning trio comprised Mary Thomas, Annette Brereton and Kath Palmer (s) in a brilliant display of bowls.

On Sunday the club held the Annual Waterwheel Classic Fours in brilliant sunshine and on true running greens. One hundred and four bowlers attended, from Bendigo East, Calivil, City of Echuca, Elmore, Deniliquin, Lake Boga, Mathoura, Moama, Pyramid Hill, Rich River, Rochester, Stanhope, Tongala plus several local members competing for the honors. Being the fiftieth running of this prestigious event, the club was naturally pleased with the response from all bowlers and the sponsors: Bendigo Community Bank (Elmore, Lockington, Rochester) along with Maddison Property & Livestock - Lockington. On the greens the competition was electric with several games decided on the final end.

At the completion of the four games of ten ends there were only two teams undefeated. The Mathoura rink of Frank Jacobite, Paul Clear, Rod Werner, David Hicks (s) faced the composite team comprising Jim Harris (Lockington), Barry "Wopper" Williams, (Stanhope), Leigh Milgate (Rochester) and Raymond "Charlie" Williams (s) from Elmore in a five end scoring play-off. Mathoura drew first blood picking up one shot on the first end before the opposition levelled at one all. On the third end Williams directed the team to grab five shots in an almost match winning move. However the Mathoura guys struck back with a double to trail 3-6 on the final end. The composite rink managed to stave off any challenge to score two shots for a 8-3 winning score-line despite a wrong-bias by their skipper, to collect the Waterwheel Classic Fours title and have their names etched in gold lettering. The winning rink included the "class of '64" from Rochester High School as all players were classmates.

The day of bowls contained many highlights including an eight scored in one game, a clean sheet (20-nil), an almost clean-sheet (25-1) and a team scoring their first win against a team going for four wins in the final game. At the presentations Club President Russell Shawcross thanked all bowlers and introduced Alan Darbyshire representing the sponsors - Bendigo Community Bank (Elmore, Lockington & Rochester) to assist with the presentations. Shawcross then made special mention of the excellent effort from lady President Kath Palmer and committee for the magnificent presentation of meals on the day and also acknowledged the work and commitment from greens-keeper Ian Johnson in preparing the greens. Tournament Secretary Chris Stewart thanked Lorraine Appleby and Pauline Humbert in assisting with the tournament detail.

On the C.V.B.D. pennant scene the Midweek resulted in a 22 shot loss for our women in the match against City of Echuca 60-82 with one rink up. (K Palmer l.t. M Shearer 21-26; P Humbert l.t. D Burger 16-37; P MacFarlane def. M Malone 25-19). In the Week-end pennant the club enjoyed success in both division two and four. Division two survived a tough battle against top side Mathoura to score a solid 12 shot victory 64-52. (I Johnson l.t. S O'Callaghan 18-23; J Harris d. B Murray 24-14; G Turner d. M Lewis 22-15). Division four made it three out of three after defeating a dangerous Ky Valley View side 81-65 with two rinks up. (S Peter l.t. G Topp 19-27; T Davis d. M Finn 31-19; P Cunningham d. B Greenaway 31-19). It was pleasing to welcome the Regional Chairperson Barry Brown to Lockington as a permit player for Ky Valley View.

At the Friday evening barbeque and practice session the lucky members draw favoured Bev Brereton.

The women will be staging a Fours tournament on Wednesday 14th November. Contact Annie Haines 5486 8220 for details.
