LOCKINGTON & DISTRICT LIVING HERITAGE COMPLEX

Complex: 5486 2515 - Open Sunday's 1pm to 4pm or by appointment

President: Kevin "Jack" Oliver - Secretary: Beryl Marshall 5486 2353

Hello again Everyone,

We've been looking at the story of selector-farmer settlement in our district from the early 1870s, when the seasons appeared to be ideal for the establishment of small to medium-sized farms devoted to cropping. Before the Terricks plains were thrown open for selection in the late 1860s, pastoralists had leased large acreages there for grazing purposes. The pastoralists had encountered some harsh seasons in the course of the twenty or more years of their occupation, and it is claimed that they endeavoured to warn the prospective new settlers about such possibilities. However, the general belief was that they were simply trying to discourage settlement in the hope of retaining their own hold on the land, and any warning went unheeded.

The "autumn break" had been slow to arrive in 1876, and some concern was felt as water supplies dwindled, but sufficient rain had fallen later in the year to ensure a fair to average yield from the crops. The heaviest rain that had been experienced in the Terricks area for some years, fell in February 1877, and the following item appeared in the Melbourne Age, on 24 February: - "The heavy rains of last week have had the effect of dissipating all fears of want of water for the rest of the summer, in the Terricks district at least ... It is surprising how little provision is made for the storage of water; making a dam, which should be the first work done on every farm, appears here to be the last thing thought of, and then only when the farmer has to drive his stock several miles to water. Many persons are taking advantage of the moistness of the soil to fallow new ground for the ensuing autumn sowing. Ploughing is being pushed on vigorously, and, judging from present appearances, the quantity of ground that will be put under crop in the Pine Grove, Terricks and Mount Hope districts, promises to be far larger than in any previous year."

However, fears had not been totally banished as, on that same day, an item about the northern plains, published in the Ovens and Murray Advertiser, stated: - "Though a good quantity of rain fell, it was insufficient for the farmers, who are crying out for more. Grass is very scarce there, consequently cattle and sheep are looking poor." By 17 March, the Weekly Times, quoting a Terricks correspondent of the Bendigo Independent, wrote that "since the recent rains, things, from an agricultural point of view, are looking very well. The farmers there are busy ploughing." On the other hand, the same item went on to say "Passing the Terricks towards Echuca ... the country does not look so well — scarcely a blade of grass to be seen. The cattle and sheep in the vicinity of the Gunbower Creek are plentifully supplied with water, though the sheep look wretched for want of sufficient pasturage."

Luckily, mild showery weather soon followed, and continued throughout the autumn, and by 7 July 1877, the Leader could report that "The direct effect of the drought was not by any means severe in this [Terricks] district, as through rain falling at such short intervals through the spring and summer grass has never been particularly scarce. The February rains caused the first spring, and from that time the country has been green, with water in abundance." On 25 September, the Riverine Herald claimed there was "almost certainty of a plentiful harvest," but exactly a month later the news reported by the Creswick Advertiser was not so optimistic. "The prospects of the selectors at the Terricks are anything but bright this season — the rust, has put in an appearance, and is spreading with amazing rapidity... a large extent of crop which promised a fair yield is now red and rotten with rust." The bad news continued, and on 22 December 1877, the Leader correspondent reported: - "Rust has been more destructive than was expected, and I believe, with few exceptions even in the best crops, the grain will be found small and shrivelled. I fear a worse is still to come, namely, scarcity of water. We are now only at the commencement of summer, yet many selectors have not a drop of water on their ground, the creeks are dry and, many of the old dams being broken, the general supply of water is low ... Surely this is a matter in which either the local or the central government might bestir themselves, and as a line of railway across the plain to Kerang will probably be surveyed very shortly, reserves and reservoirs might at the same time be provided."

On 3 November 1877, the front page of the Bendigo Advertiser carried a lengthy report of a successful Ministerial tour from Sandhurst to Kerang and back. The tour was organised by a group of Kerang businessmen, who hoped to enlist support from the parliamentary participants for the railway extension to Kerang via the route which they themselves favoured; from Eaglehawk and on through Raywood. The travellers were impressed with what they saw, special mention being made of the small townships of Mitiamo and Terrick Terrick. They stayed overnight at Mount Hope, paid a visit to Kerang and then went to Echuca. After inspecting the new bridge then being constructed across the Murray, the party returned to Melbourne that evening by train. There was no immediate follow-up, and the Railways Construction Bill remained under discussion until November 1878, by which time the route was decided; but it was not the route which the people in our district would have preferred.

'Bye until next time,

Marg O'Brien

EULOGY FOR EMMA MARY LYONS

BY SHANE HOWE

On behalf of the family, we are truly grateful for so many coming to pay your respects, it means a lot. Luckily Nana doesn't have to worry today how she's going to feed you all, but don't worry it's a Lyons DO so we have it covered.

It is fitting that we meet today in the Lords House, the place where my Grandmother felt at home, where she felt at ease, at peace. It's the place she tried to out-sing and out pray Madge, the place she constantly told you to "Shoosh" during the sermon, and the place she prayed for those who had lost their way, and by the good grace of God and some heaving praying on nanas behalf you look, you all found your way here today, so it must have worked.

There is one person who couldn't make here today, our cousin Sarah who is on the other side of the world, so instead she sends us a message instead.

If you're a numbers person, I will start off with some stats

- Nana lived 97 wonderful Years
- Married once
- Bore 6 children
- 17 Grand children
- And 34 Great Children this number is TBC

So who was Emma Mary, A gazillion brooches or as she called them badges, Snow Balls, TV Dinner Tray, Dish Water Cups of Tea, NO TEABAGS, Meat and Three Veg, jars of chutney, jars and jars and jars of preserved fruit, wet kisses, warm hugs, loong good-byes, a Sister, a Daughter, a Mother, a Grand Mother, a Great Grand Mother, and to many a true Friend.

Emma Mary Warland was born on the 25/5/1923, the first daughter for Ivy and Percy Warland, and one of 8 children Cyril, Margret, Patricia, Dorothy, Percy, Brian, and Peter. The family resided in Williamstown and were frequent visitors to the Willy Back Beach, (this may explain the absolute obsession with seafood and anything of piscatorial nature, you know you never told Nana how many fish you had caught, that wasn't her real interest, she wanted to know how many you had brought her). Now if you give this woman a filleted fish, she's going to ask what happened to the rest of it. Apparently a beautiful expertly filleted portion of prime river fish was nothing if it didn't come with a side of eyeballs.

Emma spent her youth attending St Marys Primary School. She and her siblings walked to school carrying their shoes, so they didn't wear them out too quickly.

She had formed a friendship in her teens and she spent a lot of time hanging out with her besties Alice and Mary Cook who would become her sister-in-laws. It's reported that these friends were quite the Scallywags (if you're under 30, you may need to google what that is) and it reported they would do a bit of sneaking out back in the Day.

After leaving school she worked at the Seymour Woollen Mills for a time but as soon as she was old enough Nana enlisted in the Army. As fortune would have it she was trained as a cook; word on the street was that she could knock up a decent scone (which I can personally vouch for) and it didn't take long for the word to get around she could cook a bit, so she was soon assigned to the officers mess.

When she left the Army Nana found work in a Nursing home in Lilydale, and she hooked back up with her BFFs (if you're over 30 google it) Alice and Mary who had were now married to brothers Barry and Pat Lyons. The story goes the boys are down the pub smashing a couple of cold ones and they win the chook raffle, Now Pat and Barry know that their wives have a mate who is handy on the pots and pans and can cook a bit, Enter Stage Left Emma, who was invited to cook a meal for the Family, including Barry and Pats dashing little bachelor brother Leo, now I ask you is this a stitch up or what ?

So if like me you are a descendant of these two, you do realise you're only here on this Earth because of a chook raffle; just let that soak in.

Emma married Leo Francis Lyons on the 17/12/1948 in Williamstown and they settled in Lilydale.

2 years later Wendy arrived, with Mick arriving a year later. Mick developed asthma, under doctors orders it was suggested to find dryer climes and they moved back to Leo's old stomping ground Bamawm, Conditions were pretty tough and the house and conditions fairly rudimentary for a city girl but Nana soldered on like always. In 1953 Aunty Leonie arrived in a hurry and was born in the foyer of the Echuca Hospital.

In around 1955 now a family of 5 they're on the move again moving to an Orchard in Johnson Rd Lockington, with another child on the way. Lawrence arriving soon after moving, and in 1956 Aunty Anne arrives.

When lifelong friends Kevin and Nancy Taylor moved to a dairy down the road the Lyons did the same share farming for Arthur and Gwen Harris. It was not long after the move that Uncle Mark arrived in 1962, which I believe was a bit of a surprise.

Moving again to Singer road Bamawm in the seventies, it's here my first real memories of spending time with my grandparents begin. I remember staying with them maybe when mum was in hospital and Nana packing my School Lunch. Now if you're a country kid who grew up in the seventies, you know your getting nothing but vegemite and homemade jam in those soggy sambos, am I right,

Now my first lunch packed by my own personal 2 hatted chef, cold sausages, and homemade chutney BOOM, I'm thinking "I'm never leaving, the lady just keeps upping the stakes, cake with cream - yes please, is that a sponge - indeed it is, thermos with warm milo - don't mind if I do," its like she had set herself some kind of culinary challenge and I was just glad to be along for the ride.

In 1978 they moved again into TOWN this time. This was the house that always seemed to have enough room for one more; Nana always had time for a cuppa and chat, as long as you were making the tea, HER WAY. She was always more than happy to cater for any event and who would know how many of those Snow Balls she turned out over the years; the celebration wasn't complete until they made an appearance, and just like her they were always there when you asked, just sweet enough, soft on the inside, and existed for the comfort of others.

My grandmother was a deeply pious person, a faith that I am sure that gave her comfort through loss and tragedy, however she was never one to judge, preferring a gentle hand and soft voice over the rod and staff.

My Grandmother was endowed with a true morale compass and looked for the goodness in all something I continue to try and live and she truly lived her life for the love of her family and her friends,

I want to conclude with a passage from the bible that I feel best sums up my Nanna

Luke 15: what man of you having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety and nine in the open country and go after the one that is lost until he finds it, and when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders rejoicing

She was our Shepherd.

Eggplants rich in colour

Eggplants, also known as Aubergines, are low in calories and come in many shapes and sizes. Eggplants are rich in fibres and antioxidants and are featured in the Mediterranean diet. It is best to eat eggplant cooked as it can be very bitter raw. It can be cooked in many ways and versatile in many recipes including stir fries, salads, pizza and even layered through a lasagne for a vegetarian option.

IN THE COVID CHAOS DON'T FORGET YOUR FLU SHOT "IT'S VITAL" SAYS WALSH

The Member for Murray Plains, Peter Walsh, will be taking two hits for the team this year.

And said he wanted everyone else in the electorate, the state and the country, to do the same.

The first one was today, when he rolled into Echuca pharmacy Coburn & Reid for his flu vaccination.

The second will be when it is his turn for the COVID vaccine.

Mr Walsh said with so many COVID restrictions now shelved, or more relaxed than at any time for the past year, flu once again becomes a significant threat to at-risk groups.

He said that includes:

Children younger than five, but especially children younger than two.

Adults 65 years of age and older.

Pregnant women (and women up to two weeks postpartum).

Residents of nursing home and other long-term care facilities.

"The at-risk group also includes people with underlying health conditions, but your GP would provide the best advice for individual cases," Mr Walsh said.

"But it is important people be aware that with much more population movement now, in the streets, at retail precincts, sporting grounds, theatres and so on; flu might be back with a vengeance," he said.

"We haven't had anywhere near as much flu in the past 12 months because of all the COVID hygiene measures – but that's all about to change and some of us might be a little more vulnerable because of that.

"Which is why I am encouraging people to make sure they don't forget this vital protection as we head into winter and the flu season.

"If you are due for your COVID vaccine it apparently doesn't matter which one you have first and as COVID requires two injections, you can have them either side of your flu shot.

"And as pharmacies are now able to deliver flu shots it makes access even easier to get yours."

LOCKINGTON BOWLS CLUB

REPORT 22/03/2021:

Another big week in bowls at Lockington. The women held their Presidents Day on Tuesday, Barefoot Bowls that evening, Ladies Medley Fours tournament on Friday culminating in the CVBD Pennant Grand finals on Saturday. The only missing chapter was the cancellation of the annual Waterwheel Classic Fours on Sunday due to the torrential rain that fell on Saturday night. A 7.30am inspection of the greens on Sunday morning ruled the day out. This event will be rescheduled to a later date. Keep an eye on this space!!

On Saturday the moment that we all play for' happened when our Division Four pennant teams fought out the Grand final against Rich River at the picturesque City of Echuca Bowling Club.

With perfect weather on the day, all teams went into battle with Lockington taking the early advantage to open a leading 43-18 break after 23 ends. Rich River tried desperately to bridge the gap, however our three skippers were equal to the task. The final score was Lockington 75 to Rich River 54. A comfortable 21 shot victory which enabled them to bring home the Gordon Porch Division Four Premiership shield. Rink details: D Isgro, G Hyden, D Thomas, K Main (s) d. G Edgar 21-14; L Laffy, P Collins, N Haines, F Chugg (s) d. R Ritchie 27-22; L Brereton, O McPhee, T Davis, K Stout (s) d. K Robertson 27-18. Our bowlers wore Black Armbands in respect to the passing of a Lockington Bowls Club stalwart in Alys Humbert who died during the week.

Other winners on the day were: Division One - Moama d. Rich River. Division Two: Moama d. Rich River. Division Three: Moama d. City of Echuca. A solid effort from Moama to win three shields.

Last Tuesday the Barefootbowls attracted 24 players to enjoy the ideal conditions and hospitality. The winning team was Jacob Haines, Vincent McLinden, Jeff Carnie (s) 2 wins plus 12 shots ahead of Ian Haines, Tayla Munro, Steve Pavone (s) +9 shots with Neil Haines, Cindy Felmingham, Shane Felmingham (s) with +3. Another fine night of bowls and the club thanks Bev Brereton and Joy Weller for organising the field. Les Brereton was the chef.

On Friday the women held the annual Medley Fours tournament which attracted a small but top quality field. Clubs represented included Rich River, Elmore, City of Echuca, Pyramid Hill, Moama, Mathoura, Deniliquin and Deniliquin RSL along with two local teams. Lady President Anne Lowrie welcomed all bowlers and thanked the ladies in the kitchen and the Green staff. Tournament Secretary Lorraine Appleby then thanked her committee Annie Haines, Annette Brereton and Kath Palmer for their assistance. Betty Mustey for the lovely flower arrangement and Pauline Humbert for the presentation envelopes and raffle. There were five three game winners (no four game winners) with the outright winning team comprising P Hayes, T Beck, S Shine, R Moresco from Rich River on 84 points. In second place was a composite team including B Murray, G Kerr, P Limbrick and Jenny Chalmers with 81 points. Other three game winners were A Brereton (Lockington) 80 pts, D Pappin (Moama) 77 and Marie Malone (City of Echuca) 77 pts. The day was sponsored by MGR Accountants and Nichol Trading who were suitably acknowledged.

The intra-club Pennant season is drawing to a close. In the preliminary final Grevillea defeated Banksia 18-16 in a tight contest. The Grevillea team was K Maddison, B Mustey, A Haines, L Chugg (s) while Banksia was represented by T Jones, S Harris, A Lowrie, P Humbert (s). The grand final will be a match-up between Grevillea and Bottle Brush this coming week.

The Lockington Bowls Club members were saddened to learn of the passing of Alys Humbert who was a long standing stalwart of the club and contributed an enormous amount of time and effort in the running of the club. Alys was Club Champion in 1967/68 and Associate President for season 1885/1986 and 1986/1987 plus serving in almost every other committee position.

Alys Humbert was also instrumental in the operation of the former CVLBA (Campaspe Valley Ladies Bowling Association) to which a Life Membership was bestowed after many years of service. The CVBD observed a Minutes Silence before play on Saturday in acknowledgement of the contribution of Humbert along with two other bowlers who had passed away recently.

The Lockington Bowls Club invites bowlers to attend the annual Toyota Open Fours on Sunday 11th April commencing at 9.30am. Entries to Chris Stewart 5486 2607 or Tom Davis 0428 865477.

REPORT 29/03/2021

Wet weather prevented some events from being held during the week. On Tuesday the women cancelled their weekly Social bowls while the evening Barefoot Bowls was also cancelled. Some ardent wet weather bowlers stayed around for several hours waiting for the greens to dry out - at night time??. However the barefoot bowls will resume as normal this week.

On the Wednesday members journeyed to Rochester for the weekly Sixty and Over competition. A great day for all, but no prizes.

Several members played the recent Bendigo Country Week of bowls. The pairing of Ray Hanson and Russell Shawcross (s) won their section in the Pairs event only to get beaten by two shots in the first round of the play-offs. Brian Kinnane and Andrew Harris (s) won a couple of games. In the Fours event on Wednesday and Thursday the rink comprising Kinnane, Tom Davis, Harris and Shawcross (s) just missed out in the section by two shots.

The much awaited Intra-club grand final was played out on Friday morning between Bottle Brush and Grevilleas. Teams selected were Bottle Brush: Les Brereton, Lorraine Appleby, Margaret Davis, Phyllis MacFarlane (s). Grevilleas: Kathy Maddison, Betty Mustey, Annie Haines, Lois Chugg (s). After an awesome battle between the two teams the Grevilleas won the grand final by two shots 19-17. Both teams celebrated the occasion.

In the club competitions, the women are almost down to the final of the 100 Up Presidents trophy. Leanne McInnes defeated Sue Harris in an enthralling display of bowls from both contestants. The scoreline was very even throughout the match with McInnes finally edging ahead to win a berth in the final 100-94. Denise Gilmore and Pauline Humbert were matched in another game of the 100 Up championship. Both bowlers displayed some brilliant bowling with the match in doubt right up until the moment that Gilmore drew away to win through to the next round with a 100-87 victory. Gilmore will meet Annie Haines in the semi-final. Haines won on a walk-over from Mary Thomas.

On the men's side of the ledger, the 21 Up Presidents trophy is nearing completion. Bill Musgrove defeated Steve Peter and will play Tom Davis in a quarter final. Owen McPhee won a close battle against Alan Kauffman and will play Dave Thomas. Brian Kinnane showed a taste of talent to upset Kailvin Stout and win a semi-final berth. In the 100 Up championship, club President Ray Hanson defeated Bill Musgrove in a game of missed opportunities by both players.

During the week the Club provided food and refreshments for the Wake of Alys Humbert. The women excelled in supplying an amazing presentation of cakes and slices.

The club offers Get Well wishes to Mary Thomas who is in hospital receiving treatment.

The Bendigo-Campaspe Regional Pennant Championship was held at the Bendigo East Bowling Club on Sunday between the Moama and South Bendigo Bowling Clubs. In a game of fluctuating fortunes, South Bendigo clinched a thrilling victory over Moama 49-48 after Moama had dominated the early stanza. Moama won the first nine ends before their opponents had use of the mat. At one stage Moama led 48-32 midway through the encounter but South Bendigo stayed in contention with a couple of fours to bridge the gap until the final end decided the outcome.

All bowlers are reminded that the postponed Annual Waterwheel Classic Fours has been rescheduled for Sunday 11th April commencing at 9.30am. There are limited numbers, so contact Chris Stewart 5486 2607 or Tom Davis 0428 865477 for details.

This event is in lieu of the advertised Toyota Open Fours that will be held at a later date.

At the Friday evening barbeque and practice session, the lucky members draw favored the missing Betty Mustey.
