AROUND THE BLOCK

If you haven't already seen, the corner park with the Pumtrack is getting a facelift. A double block was kindly donated to the Lockington District Business Centre by Brendan and Leanne Pentreath to develop for community use. This will be a great space for the community to utilise and admire for years to come.

This new development now requires an official name so we are opening the up the final decision to the community! The three options are:

- Centre Park
- Community Block
- Corner Block

The official voting poll is now open online on the Lockington Neighbourhood House and Lockington

Community Facebook pages. Now is your chance to have your say and cast your vote for your preference. If you don't have a Facebook page, you can always cast your vote in person directly at Lockington District Business Centre.

The name with the most votes will be announced at the official park opening which will hopefully be held on 22nd August. The murals that were painted recently will also be proudly displayed.

LOCKINGTON & DISTRICT LIVING HERITAGE COMPLEX

Complex: 5486 2515 - Open Sunday's 1pm to 4pm or by appointment
 President: Kevin "Jack" Oliver - Secretary: Beryl Marshall 5486 2353
 Website: <http://www.lockingtonvic.com.au>

Hello again Everyone,

By reading newspaper reports from that time, we are hearing of some of the difficulties faced by the selector farming families who lived here in 1880. The harvest had been disappointing, and there had been a string of suspicious fires in the district. Having experienced a succession of poor harvests, some selectors were selling up and leaving. The availability of better transport facilities might have helped the situation, but approaches made to the Commissioner of Railways requesting that a railway line be constructed through this district had brought no promise of success.

The other pressing need in the region was for a doctor, particularly as the population was increasing despite the harsh conditions that settlers encountered. On 11 September 1880, the Weekly Times reported that whooping cough was very prevalent "about the Terricks," and "some fatal cases have occurred there ... Last week Mr. Benjamin Knease, the well-known farmer in the parish of Mitiamo, had a child die of this dangerous and troublesome disease, and another was dangerously ill."

However, the news was not all bad and, thanks to some good rains that fell in the region in the autumn of 1880, water on the Terricks Plains was plentiful for at least part of that year. Crops in Milloo, Pannoomiloo, Mitiamo, Diggora, Bamawm and Pannobamawm made wonderful progress. It was said that nothing like it had been seen since 1870, and for some selectors, it was the first favourable season they had seen since coming to the district. Among those who persevered were some farmers who were doing quite well. On 22 July 1880, the Bendigo Advertiser told of a Terrick Terrick East farmer who was milking cows and was able to send 200 lbs of butter each week to the Sandhurst market.

On 8 April 1880, the following report appeared in the Ballarat Courier telling of another successful local farmer: - "Mr S. M'Intyre, a farmer on rather a large scale, whose holding is at Terricks East, has at present, and has had for some time past, in use a cultivator, which is worth the attention of every agriculturist in the colony. The cultivator under notice cannot be said to be the invention altogether of Mr M'Intyre, but he certainly improved in no small degree on those hitherto in use; consequently, the improvements are entirely his own This cultivator was manufactured at Mr M'Intyre's homestead, under his personal direction and as the results obtained by actual working ... are more than ordinarily satisfactory, we are of opinion that agricultural implement makers and farmers will find it advantageous to obtain full information regarding its construction and other details. Its value cannot by any means be doubted, and in addition to that, it is a credit to the mechanical skill and invention possessed by one of our farmers in this part of the colony."

If not actually able to invent and produce their own farm implements, farmers of the day needed to be aware of the types of equipment they could acquire, and to be able measure and compare the advantages each offered. An opportunity for such research presented in the form of ploughing matches which had been introduced to the region a year or two earlier. A match held at Terrick Terrick East in June 1880, was the first such event ever held there, and provided a 'gala day for the residents.' The Bendigo Advertiser, of 13 September 1880, carried a report of two more ploughing matches held earlier that month – at Terricks and at Diggora. The report included an estimate of the size of the crowds which attended, the condition of the soil on the properties where the matches were held, the various classes of competition which took place, and the names of the judges. It also listed the names of the competitors and told how successfully they rated, describing the type of implement that each had used, and how suitable it had proved to be in the competition.

The other 'sporting' events which attracted strong local support all those years ago, were the cricket matches. Names of prominent players from our district included: - Messrs. Orchard, Bray, Forsyth, Windridge, Allan, W. Patterson, C. A. Yeaman, W. Martin, J. Spence, W. E. Dunstan, and W. Clark. Local farmers and their sons expected – perhaps hoped – to be much too busy with the harvest in the warmer months of the year, so cricket was played in the winter. Early-sown crops that year continued to do well according to the Bendigo Advertiser of 7 October 1880, and it was hoped that some showers that had fallen about that time would be beneficial to the late crops. For the next couple of months, expectations of a good yield were maintained. Then, unfortunately, rust made its appearance in the district in October and, by December, locusts were also doing some damage to crops and gardens. So, as the 1880-81 season came to a close, though the crops did not do quite as well as had been expected, the area sown had been larger than in previous years and the total yield was considered, at least, satisfactory.

'Bye until next time,

Marg O'Brien

LOCKY NEWS ADVERTISING
PRICE RISES
EFFECTIVE 1ST JULY 2021

Did you know that The Locky News is run by volunteers and is totally self funded, and relies on our advertising charges and donations to keep the paper going?

Advertising Costs

Last October the committee reviewed our advertising charges so they will be more in line with their physical size and labour input, plus cover our publication costs.

Our overheads are roughly 1.5 times the printing costs.

Based on our printing costs, our annual costs are generally in the range of $13,500 to $16,875

Annual Advertising needs to cover the major portion of our costs, since we have minimal other income.

The Annual Advert charges therefore need to increase (on average) to the range of $225 to $281.25

With a mix of Local and Non-Local Adverts, approximately 1/3 being Non-Local, we have come up with the following new charges... which will allow for the paper to continue to be sustainable into the future.

If you have any comments on these new charges, please email lockynews@bigpond.com

Regular Small	$12.50	$13.00

A EWE CALLED BRUCE

Bruce is a sheep, a female sheep. Bruce was thought to be a wether but turned out to be a ewe. The name had already stuck so she has always been called Bruce. Well, it happens occasionally that the sex of lambs is mistaken. An error occurs while drafting or the lamb falls asleep and wakes up in the wrong paddock on the wrong side of the fence! Bruce was a lost ewe who was taken in by a semi retired farmer who had ideas of putting Bruce in the freezer if you know what I mean. Well Bruce turned out to be a very good pet, easy to manage and good at keeping the grass under control in the back yard, so Bruce did not end up in the freezer but became a much loved pet. A local shearer gave Bruce an annual haircut and years passed. Bruce's owner became old and got cancer and died. This could have been the end for Bruce but the old mans son took over care of Bruce. Bruce is still living happily in Nicholson Lane, Kotta and is nineteen years old, or thereabouts, enjoys good health and still has some teeth. Good old Bruce!

This quirky little anecdote about a Kotta pet sheep, a happy brief story that only took 180 words to describe so I am padding it out to 300 to get the ten bucks! No, only joking. "A ewe called Bruce" is the working title of an upcoming book on the history of the Kotta area written/collated/collected/accumulated by Dick Worboys and David Hammond. Locals will know that Dick Worboys died in 2005 and David was given a box of notes, letters, cassette tapes, recollections and photos from Kotta residents. For 16 years I have been looking at this box of memorabilia and wondering what to do with it. Bruce and the Locky News 300 word challenge have given me inspiration! You have to start somewhere and this little composition is it.

Lights on the corner of King / Joyce street and Market / Locky road not functioning. Wendy to contact PowerCor.

Wendy to ask Shire to relocate the bin from in front of the old Post Office to have an additional bin outside Giddings supermarket

Reports:

Alison Stewart – outlined a proposed project she is working on for the Loddon Murray Leadership Program. The idea is to create a meandering brick pathway from the Traveller's Rest toward the Heritage Centre at the Pannoo Road end. This pathway would contain an area of 'dry rendered mud channel banks' down the centre of the pathway, where the district could show case the different water wheels that were used in our region since the establishment of irrigation. Along the edge of the meandering brick pathway, signs could be erected to reflect stories of original settlers, prominent members of our community, unique flora and fauna found in this district. Seating would also be provided along the walkway. Further discussion on this concept will take place at future meetings and groups associated with this area and asked for their input for this idea. Picture below is at Lockhart, general concept for proposed project.

Meeting closed: 7.25 pm

Next meeting: 16th August at 7 pm - Planning for the Rural Aid week 19th Sept to 25th Sept to be discussed at this meeting.

SENIOR CITIZENS REPORT

We would like to thank all those who attended our Pie Day at the Community Hall on Monday, June 21. It was good to see you there!

It went off very well with 35 people attending and reports indicated it was an enjoyable day. The meal was very nice – pie/pastie, potato bake, peas and carrots, followed by quince/apple crumble with custard and cream. Tea and coffee finished off the meal.

As usual everyone enjoyed the Lucky Door and Raffle ticket draws with the main prizes going to Donna Tink – fruit basket and Don Smith – a towel.

President Bev thanked everyone for coming and welcomed them to this event. The most pleasing thing was to provide a social event with a meal for members of the public and ourselves, which we achieved.

Disability Worker
Registration Board of Victoria

Victorian Disability Worker Commission

MEDIA RELEASE - 24 June 2021

New disability worker registration gives regional Victorians with disability a safe choice

Victoria's disability workforce will be stronger and safer under a new Victorian Government disability worker registration scheme, giving regional Victorians with disability greater choice and better protections.

The first scheme of its kind in Australia, voluntary disability worker registration will open on 1 July to allow workers to be independently assessed by the Disability Worker Registration Board of Victoria.

Across the disability sector, different onboarding checks, standards and screenings in place for disability workers may vary in consistency or may not exist in some cases. Registration fills a critical gap by ensuring registered disability workers meet rigorous standards and are assessed for safety, skills and professionalism, no matter how they are employed or how the services they deliver are funded. By becoming registered, disability workers can demonstrate their commitment to upholding the safety and quality of the workforce for people with disability. By registering from 1 July, disability workers will not be charged a fee in the first year and can have their experience recognised without needing a qualification.

People with disability and their carers will be able to easily check if a disability worker is registered through a public list on the Victorian Disability Worker Commission website.

Disability worker registration is a key part of the Disability Worker Regulation Scheme – a new set of regulations to strengthen protections for Victorians with disability and ensure the quality of the disability workforce.

The new safeguards were established in response to recommendations of the Victorian Parliament's 2016 Inquiry into abuse in disability services which evidenced alarming abuse and neglect of Victorians with disability, including in regional areas. The launch of worker registration also shadows the current Royal Commission into Violence, Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation of People with Disability, which has heard cases of the disturbing mistreatment of regional Victorians with disability.

Melanie Eagle, Chair of the Disability Worker Registration Board of Victoria, which regulates registered workers and sets their standards, said everyone living with disability deserves a safe choice.

"For someone living with disability, knowing their worker is registered provides confidence they have the right skills to deliver high quality services.

"Registration supports increased professionalisation in disability work and for people seeking services to find workers they know have been independently assessed as safe, skilled and professional."

Victorian Disability Worker Commissioner Dan Stubbs said: "I'm really pleased to be part of implementing a registration program that recognises the excellent, high-quality work so many disability workers do in Victoria."

Disability workers can apply to register starting 1 July at vdwc.vic.gov.au.

Background

Disability worker registration

The Disability Worker Registration Board of Victoria's assessment of registered workers involves:

- A national police check
- English language competency
- Consideration of training, qualifications or experience
- A check on disciplinary and regulatory actions issued by other regulators

Registered disability workers will be able to use a legal title to reflect their status and must continue to meet registration standards to renew their registration each year.

Information about disability worker registration is available at: <https://www.vdwc.vic.gov.au/registration>

Disability Worker Registration Board of Victoria

The Disability Worker Registration Board of Victoria officially commenced its role in August 2019 to set registration standards, regulate registered workers and accredit approved programs of study.

Disability Worker Regulation Scheme

The Disability Worker Regulation Scheme includes a raft of services and safeguards to ensure a high quality disability workforce and stronger protections for people with disability:

A voluntary worker registration scheme

Compliance with the Disability Service Safeguards Code of Conduct.

The requirement for disability workers and service providers to formally notify the Commission of unsafe worker conduct.

A new complaints service for any Victorian to lodge a complaint against any disability worker

A better deal
for Murray Plains

Peter WALSH
MEMBER FOR MURRAY PLAINS LEADER OF THE NATIONALS

THE NATIONALS
for Regional Victoria

LET'S GET OUR COMMUNITY GROUPS ON TRACK SAYS WALSH

Member for Murray Plains, Peter Walsh, wants the Transport Minister, Ben Carroll, to directly intervene in the leasing of VicTrack land to councils and community groups.

Speaking in Parliament this afternoon, Mr Walsh said the current policies about the use of VicTrack land across regional Victoria are "ad hoc at best, and a shambles at worst".

He said on one hand, VicTrack insists on leasing old railway lines to local councils and not direct with community groups.

But in the case of disused train stations and/or platforms; the same department ignores its other position and happily goes about signing up incorporated community groups to become responsible for those assets.

"The latest example to come through the front door of my electorate office is about the decommissioned track between Lockington and Kotta," Mr Walsh said.

"An enthusiastic community group in Locky want to establish a walking/riding trail along the 9.2km of track to Kotta for the social, physical and mental wellbeing of the local population," he said.

"The established practice has been VicTrack leasing this idle land to the relevant local council, which in turn provides it to the community group to develop – sometimes in partnership and other times on its own.

"Which is what brings me to the floor of the Parliament – in this case Campaspe Shire is proving reluctant to get involved as the lessee and VicTrack is just as adamant it does not want to do the deal with the community.

"In my electorate of Murray Plains there is a network of these walking trails; community-driven wellbeing projects which are also proving quite the drawcard for domestic tourists."

Which he said in Parliament has seen the trail's supporters starting fundraisers for the project, including a fun run along the proposed route.

"VicTrack is already well down this co-operative path, having done those leases with incorporated community groups for decommissioned platforms and stations across regional Victoria," he said.

"To add its disused railway lines to that list would certainly solve the challenges facing the Lockington group; and would also make these proposal – and future applications – a much smoother process as we would be reducing the layers of state and local government involvement and the department could simply deal directly with the people who want the project and the communities which will benefit from it.

"But to achieve this bureaucratic breakthrough will require the Minister to get involved and I am sure there are many communities, not just Lockington, which would appreciate that effort," Mr Walsh said.

THE EDITOR'S SNAPSHOT

Your Dog - Your Poop

There has been noise being made again lately about dog faeces being left on nature strips around town.

Please... pick up after your dogs. Take some bags with you and "bag and bin" the poop as you go.

And remember - no dogs should be freely roaming around town, all dogs should be under control, even if not on a lead. So if you're not with your dog and its wandering around town on it own, you should be prepared for the pound to be called.

FARM FACT

"Sheep are key to good soil health. Including animals in farming systems can reduce the need for fertilisers and implementing rotational grazing techniques ensures that grass is trimmed regularly, allowing it to regrow, store more carbon in its roots and support biodiversity in and above the soil."

LOCKINGTON BOWLS CLUB

Report June 28: At the clubs Annual General Meeting recently, the club President Ray Hanson paid special thanks and acknowledgement to our fantastic sponsors. The several businesses around Lockington, Bendigo, Echuca, Kyabram and Rochester support the club and help us to try and survive. Many thanks. Also from the A.G.M., there was a slight error in the Selection Committee formed. The committee comprise John van den Bosch, Phillip Cunnington and Steve Peter. Peter has also taken on the role of Club Secretary from Neil Haines, who has served diligently in that role for the past six years. Well done, Neil.

At the Tuesday Scrounge last week, Neil Haines dominated the series with John Fisher a close second. The event was held due to the predicted rain on the following day - which it did!

Local district bowlers have enjoyed the sunny conditions on the Gold Coast to participate in the Bowls Australia Open Championships. Bowlers who performed well included Joan Moss (Mathoura) winning the section in the Pairs with a New South Wales member before losing the first Knockout round. In the Fours, Moss combined in a composite team to make the knockout rounds, only to lose the second round 12-15. A Moama rink comprising Mia Young, Barbara Bell, Kath Wastell and Sandra Connolly (s) won a section, then lost a Knockout round 13-15. The Merrilyn Rehe skipped rink of Colleen Maslen, Margot Brennan, Teresa Barbell lost the Section when defeated by the Joan Moss four in the final game 12-14. Kevin Anderson (Moama) enjoyed a fine tournament to reach the semi-final along with M Lucas (s) in the Pairs championship. The pair won their matches 16/13, 23/8, 15/14, 19/6, and 16/14. Unfortunately, they lost the semi-final 14/19. In the Singles event, Rob Young (Moama) performed well to win the Section before losing the third round of the Knockout. Former Rich River bowler Chris Philpot (Tocumwal) was successful in winning the Section, then made it to the fourth round of the Knockouts, before succumbing to the might of the Australian champion Aaron Sherriff 9-21. Kath Wastell had a sad tale to tell after losing the three games in the Singles Sectional play. Losing 21/20, 21/19 and 21/20 - it could have been glory?

In the Multi-Disability Open Pairs championship, Paul Kearney and Barry Brennan won the Section 19/9 before losing the semi-final 12/14. Brennan partnered Williams Ahoy in the 60 and Over Pairs to win 17/14, only to miss the next round with a loss. Former local Area Bowls Manager Josh Thornton (Murray Downs) was successful in winning the Multi-Disability Singles crown with winning scores of 21/9, 21/13 and 21/17 in the final against D Delgrado (Tweed Heads). Mathoura bowlers Paul Clear and Mick Humphreys (s) won their Section in the Pairs championship, won the first knockout 16/14 then suffered a severe letdown losing 13/25 in the next game.

LOCKINGTON GOLF CLUB

23/06: No play, due to inclement weather.

26/06: Stroke - Club Championship Grand Final Day. Damp conditions underfoot, proved to be a good test for all golfers.

Keeping his best round for Grand Final Day, Grant Humbert won his 23rd Club Champion title, with rounds of 74-76-72=222, a hard-fought 8 shot margin over Mat Dennis (79-77-74=230), with Brett Stone (76-81-75=232) 2 shots back in third.

B Grade proved to be the nail-biter of the day. Jeff Carnie led by 3 shots at the start of the day, but Ian Maddison began better, and they were level after 5. Jeff recovered and with a fine chip-in birdie on the 7th, stretched the lead to 5 after 8, but Ian would not be denied, fought back and the scores were tied again after 13.

Jeff regained the lead briefly, but again Ian came back to level after 16. Jeff kept his cool and parred the last 2 holes which Ian bogeyed, and the title was Jeff's by 2 shots with scores of 87-91-89=267, ahead of Ian 89-92-88=269. Will Hardess and Darren Carnie tied for 3rd on 281, 12 shot back.

JD Wright led C Grade by 3 shots at the start of the day. Tom Scurrah began well and cut the margin to just 1 after 3 holes, but JD responded and surged to a 7-shot lead after 9. Tom fought back again and cut the deficit back to 2 after 13, but JD settled and captured the title with his rounds of 96-98-100=294. Tom was runner-up with 100-97-101=298, with Des Pentreath third on 312.

Despite starting the round 10 shots off the lead for the A Grade nett title, Mat Dennis returned a brilliant 67 to finish with 73-71-67=211, to win by 3 shots from James Hodgens (77-69-68=214) and Andy Freemantle (73-61-80=214).

The B Grade nett title was won by Ian Maddison with a solid 71-74-70=215 to hold on by 4 shots from the fast-finishing Will Hardess (75-74-70=219), with Ron Dixon and Darren Carnie tied for 3rd on 223.

Des Pentreath was the shocked but delighted winner of the C Grade nett title with his scores of 73-71-83=227, by 4 shots from Tom Scurrah (77-75-79=231), with Tony Brooke next best on 240.
