LOCKINGTON & DISTRICT LIVING HERITAGE COMPLEX

Complex: 5486 2515 - Open Sunday's 1pm to 4pm or by appointment
 President: Kevin "Jack" Oliver - Secretary: Beryl Marshall 5486 2353
 Website: <http://www.lockingtonvic.com.au>

Hello again Everyone,

We've been looking back at early newspapers to learn the story of our district from the Selection Era until Lockington was gazetted as a township. The provision of railway services in the region was vital to its over-all development, and of particular significance to Lockington, but the rail lines took many years to arrive. However, the situation was looking very hopeful when the Elmore-Tomara railway extension was included in the Railway Construction Bill in June 1890. The Bill was presented for its second reading in the Legislative Assembly on 15 July 1890. Writing to the Elmore Standard on 23 July, the Tennyson correspondent said, "The local residents are in ecstasies at the inclusion of the Elmore to Gunbower line in the amended schedule. (Gunbower had replaced Tomara in the second reading). That a railway is needed in these districts none can deny. The starting point, however, is the crux. Elmore is the scheduled point, but Rochester, Bagshot, Goornong, and Huntly all lay claim to the honour of having the junction."

However, beyond our district not everyone was ecstatic, or even pleased with the Railway Construction Bill. Mr Gillies' tone as he introduced it was one of confidence and optimism, but he was proposing that the Government borrow £12,000,000 to cover the cost of building the new lines. Already, £34,000,000 had been borrowed to pay for railway lines, and it had been found that many of them were not warranted, were under-utilised, and were not paying. Across the State, this latest Bill caused concern, and it was hotly debated in Parliament for weeks. The people of our district must have realised that their hopes might be dashed again, but they could only wait for the outcome. In the meantime, in August 1890, unsettled weather prevailed on the Terricks Plains, in a year that had been the wettest since 1875. Nevertheless, social activities were still taking place.

On 1 August, a very successful bachelors' ball was held at Pannoomilloo, with about a hundred couples present. Reporting on the event, the Tennyson correspondent to the Bendigo Advertiser of 9 August, noted that a return ball sponsored by the married men was "spoken of" and a military ball was also "on the tapis." On 30 August, "a largely-attended meeting was held at the (Pannoomamawm) State school to consider the advisability of erecting a public hall, and forming a library in connection with the Mutual Improvement Association. Cr. R. Allan was voted to the chair. It was resolved that a hall should be built. A site was chosen (kindly given by Mr Seiersen) adjacent to the proposed line of railway from Elmore to Tomara." A committee was appointed to begin the process and a subscription list was opened.

On 5 September 1890, the Elmore Standard reported on a "dismounted parade of members of the 1 Company Victorian Mounted Rifles," held at Bendigo on 3 September, and attended by members of the Pannoomilloo group. "Several officers from headquarters were expected, but owing to their being detained in Melbourne in connection with the strike, they were unable to put in an appearance. The men were kept hard at work for about three hours, during which time they were exercised in the new form of attack, skirmishing and company drill. Subsequently they held the usual company dinner ... The men returned to their homes in the evening." The strike mentioned in that news item was the Australian maritime dispute. A meeting of the strikers had been arranged to take place in Melbourne on 31 August, and some of the Victorian Mounted Rifles had been held in reserve there to provide support if the gathering became violent. Fortunately, the meeting remained orderly and the forces were not called in, but the officers had still been unable to be present at the Bendigo exercise.

The Pannoomilloo Mounted Rifle Club held its annual Ball at the Old Mill in Tennyson on 8 September 1890, as reported by the Elmore Standard on 19 September. The venue was "appropriately and tastefully decorated with flags bearing various devices and mottos, and evergreens. The attendance was very good, numbering between 80 and 90 couples, including visitors from Rochester and Dingee and all the surrounding districts. The music was in the hands of Messrs. Joyce and Humphries, and the catering supplied by Mr. H. Barrett, of Rochester, while Mr. J. Hodge acted as M.C. in his usual able style." However, the Mounted Rifles still had a serious role to play as the strike continued, and September 1890 saw more than 28,000 workers taking part. On 15 September, the Bendigo Advertiser reported that more than thirty members of the Mounted Rifles – including some from Pannoomilloo – "passed through Sandhurst by train on Saturday morning en route for the metropolis where they will replace a number of men from the western district who have been on duty in Melbourne in connection with the strike."

Apart from the slight involvement of the Pannoomilloo Mounted Rifles, the strike appears to have made very little impact locally. On 4 October 1890, the Leader noted that, despite there having been "an impression that shearing had barely commenced in Victoria, it may be of interest to know that on several of the larger station properties in this [Northern] district, shearing is nearly finished.... No intimation of any strike has been received.... Nothing has been heard of a strike." That must be all for this time. 'Bye

Marg O'Brien.

Bruce Neville Glasson
9/11/1938 ~ 10/7/2022

Bruce was born in Rochester in 1938 and lived on the family farm at Bamawm, along with his parents, 2 brothers, Alan & Don, and a sister, Margaret. His primary school education was at the Bamawm Central School near the Bamawm Hall. The farm in the early days was an orchard with citrus, pears, peaches and apricots. The citrus fruit went via steam train from Lockington to the Melbourne market, and the stone fruit went via truck to the Kyabram canary.

Dad graduated to the Echuca Technical College to study agriculture. When not at school he filled his time helping on the family orchard. To earn some pocket money, Bruce used to set rabbit traps and sell the rabbits for two shillings a pair. He also collected asparagus from the nearby channel banks to sell to the shops in Rochester. While at Echuca Tech, Bruce took an interest in bee-keeping which he continued for many years. After finishing schooling, Bruce worked for the Carnation Milk Company at Merrigum for a time.

In 1958 he returned to the family farm, by this time most of the orchard had been replaced with pastures to supplement the feed for the dairy farms his brothers had purchased near-by. Bruce's leisure time was spent then with fishing, football, tennis, water skiing and Badminton. He also played a trumpet in a dance band for a while.

In 1963 Bruce married Rita Ross from Lockington and they purchased a dairy farm not far from the family property at Bamawm. Margaret married Rita's brother, Ken, and both their first born were born on the same day. All the children were born at the Rochester Hospital, three boys and one girl. While here on this dairy farm they purchased a 4WD, and with Rita and the 4 children we joined up with some friends from .S.A. on a camping trip around the eastern part of Australia and Queensland.

While on this farm at Bamawm there is one incident I can recall. Most farms had overhead fuel tanks near their dairies then, at this time rumours were rife regarding fuel thieves in the area. Well, this night Dad heard a vehicle go past the house to the dairy, it could not be the Carnation milk tanker as he had picked up the milk earlier. Dad thought it must be a fuel thief and picked up his shot gun, let off two shots in the air and ran to meet it as it drove out. HOWEVER, as the truck approached, he could see it was a Murray Goulburn tanker who had pulled into the wrong farm. The driver stopped and carefully exited his truck, then said 'it's not my day, I have just arrived from New Zealand, I've been bogged, I got lost and then some silly fool in underpants tries to shoot me!

Another story worth telling is about our holiday to Kingston SA by the sea. We took our speed boat to do some skiing and fishing. We had a very good few days fishing, netting many gar fish. My uncle Don, who had a pilot's license, together with other in the family decided to fly to Kingston to spend some time with us. When it was time for them to leave, we gave them a large bag full of garfish to take back with them, we had too many to store ourselves. They placed the bag of fish in the aeroplane and took off East. As they approached Charlton, they came across a bad thunder storm and had to find a place to land. After a sketchy landing they phoned my Uncle Ken to come and pick them up, and he drove them back to their homes near Rochester. Two days later they arrived back at Charlton to retrieve the aeroplane, and when they opened the aeroplane door they were greeted by the smell of the fish they had forgotten! Oh what a mess that was!

It was around this same time we were all involved in Scouting. Dad spent 10 Years as a scout leader for the Lockington Scout Troop. We were very active, the whole extended family seemed to be involved with Scouts which taught us all many important life lessons, many thanks to my dad and uncles for this invaluable education.

To make a bit more money on the Bamawm farm, Dad also ran a hay contracting business and in the tomato season he drove a fork lift loading tomato bins for O'Sullivan's transport. Most of these tomatoes went by these trucks to Heinz in Dandenong.

In 1983 Mum and Dad sold the farm and moved to Gawler in S.A., where they purchased an auto accessory business. Dad also spent some time as salesman for the Gawler John Deere agency. Mum passed away in October 1991 after a long period fighting the big 'C'.

In 1995 Dad moved back to Bamawm to retire but this changed when he was contacted by an investment company to manage a dairy farm at Bamawm Extension. This farm was very much run down, his job was to improve the dairy and the lay out of the property in general, to increase the value of this asset when it was to be sold.

After three years here, he moved back to the Barossa Valley in SA, with his new friend from Echuca, Myrtle Taylor. They both loved country music and decided to join the Barossa Valley Community radio station to play and promote Australian Country Music. Their program became very popular, it was suggested they form a committee to organise a series of country music events to raise money for Cancer Treatments. As a result of this they were able to donate $20,000 to the Anti-Cancer Foundation of S.A.

After several years here Dad and Myrtle decided to return to Victoria to retire. Not long after they arrived in their new home in Rochester, Myrtle and Dad set off on a caravan holiday. Travelling north through central Australia and then to Queensland, down through NSW and back home. Bruce's first long stay on this holiday was at Mataranka in NT, where he got a position working on a water melon farm driving tractors for a couple of months. Next they travelled to Darwin where they did some fishing, which he loved. After a few weeks they headed for Normanton in Queensland for a tour on the Gulflander railway. Their next stay over was at Borumba Dam to fish for Bass. They caught up with us in Brisbane, before making a B line home to Rochester.

After returning from this holiday Dad decided to become a volunteer member of the Rochester State Emergency Service. He continued with the SES for ten years, and awarded long service medals. About this time he decided to expand his interest in radio communications. After some study he obtained his Amateur Radio Licence enabling me to talk to various other amateurs all over Australia and the World.

Darren lives in Kyabram and is also involved in this hobby. Each year Darren and Dad assisted the committee of the Southern 80 Ski Race by operating the two way radios in the control room at the finish line, to communicate with the safety boats stationed at various locations along the river.

Unfortunately, after a prolonged battle with illness, Myrtle passed in 2019. Dad never really got over this loss and struggled with depression in the years that followed.

He loved to visit his three sons, daughter, grandchildren and the 3 great grandchildren when he could, but it was not easy visiting one's family interstate during the COVID lockups.

Dad went on a Probus outing some time last year where he met Merle. He took on a new hobby and together with Merle he loved playing indoor bowls. He was an active member of the RSL Bowls Club and enjoyed the social life at various clubs around town. He still went fishing and touring when he could and he looked forward to the occasional visit to Merle's farm, at Elaine near Ballarat.

Dad kept active till the end. This is the Yellow Peril signing off with VK3PNG. 73s dad.

NEW DIRECTOR JOINS REDHS BOARD

Rochester and Elmore District Health Service has welcomed a new Director.

Podiatrist Emma Millard is the latest addition to the REDHS Board, bringing a wealth of experience in health governance to the important role.

Millard has fulfilled a range of clinical and leadership roles with Bendigo Community Health Services over the past decade; she is currently the organisation's Executive Leader for Risk, Quality and Compliance.

"I recognise the value of effective governance in the delivery of high-quality and safe services that meet community needs," the new Director said.

"And I look forward to utilising my experience and skills to support the REDHS Board.

"I was born and raised locally and my husband and I live just outside of Bendigo.

"I feel very lucky to live in a regional city, and I'm aware of the challenges that exist for many in accessing health services in regional, and particularly rural areas," she said.

"In my new role I hope to support the REDHS' vision to care for our community while ensuring essential health service access."

Millard has been appointed for a two-year term.

She joins Chair David Rosaia, and fellow Directors Brad Drust and Jim Brooks who have each been reappointed for a further three years.

The REDHS Board now numbers nine and also includes Kate Lemon (Deputy Chair), Christopher White, Assoc. Prof. Carol McKinstry, Jodie Smith and Ben Devanny.

Hydrogen master plan lifts hopes for sustainable future says Walsh

The Nationals leader and Member for Murray Plains, Peter Walsh, says the $1 billion Victorian hydrogen strategy released by The Nationals and Liberals ahead of the Victoria state election restores hope for more efficient and sustainable energy solutions for regional Victoria.

Mr Walsh describes the Victorian gas reservation policy for new gas developments as "a fantastic solution for regional Victoria" and sustainable new energy future.

"The policy includes a commitment to hydrogen, a boost for locals seeking solar panels and batteries at home and more opportunities for renters," Mr Walsh says.

"Victoria is facing a shortage of natural gas for its approximately 2.2 million customers with a metered natural gas connection," he says.

"Victorian households and businesses are more dependent on natural gas to satisfy their energy needs than other states.

"The number of households requiring gas in Victoria is growing, with 3500 new supply points on average connected every month.

"Residential and commercial users account for 58 per cent of Victoria's total gas consumption; the highest percentage of any state – and heating represents a significant proportion of this usage.

"Natural gas supply shortages mean higher costs for Victorian consumers, and a higher risk of blackouts at times of peak demand for energy."

Mr Walsh says an affordable and reliable energy system is what we need for our regions – it helps back our current energy industries and their workers in our community.

He says The Nationals and Liberals are committed to utilising local gas for local needs to ensure the lights stay on and energy prices for families in across regional Victoria are kept to a minimum.

"A Liberals and Nationals Government will support the development of onshore conventional natural gas as an affordable, reliable source of energy for Victorian families and businesses, and as a sustainable pathway to achieving lower greenhouse gas emissions," he added.

"Only a Liberal and Nationals Government will genuinely work to rebuild and recover Victoria's future."

Labor's 'track' record a shambles, but our Regional Infrastructure Guarantee will deliver says Walsh

The Nationals leader and Member for Murray Plains, Peter Walsh, says northern Victoria's dominance of Australian agricultural production – highlighted last week by the Australian Bureau of Statistics – might be about to hit the wall of Andrews Labor government indifference.

According to the latest ABS data, Mr Walsh says Campaspe Shire and Swan Hill Rural City Council are both in Victoria's top five agricultural producers.

With Mildura, the next local government area downstream on the Murray, not just Victoria's leading producer at $1.13 billion – it is the highest ranked council in Australia.

He says these areas, with Moira and Shepparton the neighbouring council areas to the immediate east of Campaspe, completing five of the state's top 10.

"Campaspe, with $778.3 million and Swan Hill with $760.1 million are punching well above their weight, and combined with Moira and Shepparton, account for adding more than $3 billion to the state's bottom line," Mr Walsh says.

"That they are able to achieve this on a rapidly deteriorating road network and a rail system the Andrews Labor government has bungled from go to whoa despite its big talking seven years ago, when Andrews and Jacinta Allan swore they would fix the Murray Basin rail network after admitting it was costing farmers time and money – and threatening their future – nothing has been completed," he says.

"As I revealed last week, the Victorian Auditor-General's report from September 2021 spells it out in black and white – the rail project is now five years overdue and $367.9 million over budget. "It's such a familiar story – the Andrews Labor government not just blowing another big ticket budget; but blowing up the whole project.

"If the Murray Basin rail is not completed – in full and to its original scope – it will limit agriculture's potential to open our region to domestic markets and new and emerging markets around the world".

He says many producers and transporters say Labor's botched delivery of Basin Rail has left the community worse off than before the project started.

"They are telling me shoddy workmanship has slowed speed limits to 25km/h and lowered the axle loading, leaving the line less efficient and taking five hours longer to get to port than before the project started.

23/07 – Stroke.

Ninety-two year old golfer Don Muhleisen returned the super score of 89-27-62 to win the Monthly Medal and C Grade honours – and shoot a score lower than his age for the second time, a remarkable achievement.

Terry Thomas began brilliantly to win the first 4 holes against Kahl Oliver, and ultimately won the contest 5 and 4, to progress to the semi-finals.

29/07 – Foursomes.

Marg Eade and Annette Brereton combined well to return the good score of 97-25.5-71.5. Runners-up were Sherryl Jones and Pauline Humbert. Nearest the pins: Annette Brereton, Marg Eade.

30/07 – Stableford.

Numbers were up, with visitor Adam Sims (Bamawm) in the field, as well as golfers returning from illness. Brett Stone played well to win A Grade with 35 points, ahead of Kevin Humbert (34).

Darren Carnie returned 39 points to win the Privilege Cup with the day's best score, helped by a couple of chip-ins. He also won B Grade, with Ray Brereton (34) runner-up. JD Wright won C Grade with a terrific 37 points.

HENRY LAWSON IN VERSE AND SONG

The Campaspe Players tell Henry Lawson's own dramatic, often tragic life story, highlighted by his legendary, much-loved poems, both recited and sung... about the bush and the city, mateship, endurance, kindness and resistance to oppression.

The show commemorates the 100th anniversary this year of his death.

MILLOO CWA REPORT

There was an average attendance at our July meeting. The Echuca Group CWA Conference is to be held on Monday 29th August at the Rochester Court House, Campaspe Branch being the hostess Branch, there will be a bring and share lunch.

The branch competition is three distinct articles of craft - anything goes, and the individual competition is 4 jam tarts with home made pastry.

International Officer Norma gave her usual interesting report on our Country of Study Malaysia. Malaysia is the third largest natural rubber producer in the world and the world's largest supplier of rubber gloves. Malaysia is the ninth most visited country in the world with around 23.6 million visitors.

There was a good collection of pot holders to be forwarded to CWA head office for inclusion in the show bags that they sell at the Royal Melbourne Show.

Subs are due at the end of September.

Competition Results

Craft - Pot holder: 1st Elaine Mitchell. There was no 2nd as Elaine's was so eye catching with a magpie on it.

Cookery: Something made from citrus: It was decided to award 1st to each entry as they were all so different.

Flower from your garden: Equal 1st: Margaret Fiedler & Elaine Mitchell.

The next meeting will be on August 12, at 10:00am at the Milloo Hall

LIONS FOR LIFE

LABOR'S FOOT-AND-MOUTH BIOSECURITY RESPONSE IS A SHAMBLES

The Albanese Labor Government's handling of the serious Foot and Mouth Disease biosecurity threat on our doorstep is little short of atrocious.

The Government has had weeks to implement measures to prevent the transmission into Australia.

Sam Birrell, the Federal Member for Nicholls, and The Hon. Kevin Hogan, Shadow Minister for Trade and Tourism, this week met with leading dairy and meat processors in the Goulburn Valley.

These industry leaders highlighted the importance of having additional biosecurity measures in place to protect our primary production.

As of Friday, there are still no sanitation foot baths in international airports, and anecdotal evidence indicates that returning passengers from Indonesia are being waived through with insufficient inquiry as to the risk they pose.

The delay in implementing biosecurity controls at airports illustrates the lack of understanding the Labor Government has in protecting Australia's vital food processing industries.

"The threat of this disease will have catastrophic results on the food production industries in Australia, and by extension, the economy, Australian families and the cost of food" Mr. Birrell said.

"In the state of Victoria alone, a total of 146,000 people are employed in agricultural production and food manufacturing".

"Victoria exports $11.4 billion of food and $3.1 billion of animal fibre annually".

"If the disease is detected in Australian livestock, an immediate livestock standstill will come into effect and export doors will be closed".

"The Labor Government must immediately implement stronger measures to reduce the likelihood of FMD entering Australia".

LOCKINGTON BOWLS CLUB REPORT

July 25

Last Wednesday at the weekly game of Scrounge, the cream rose to the top. All games featured some excellent bowling from all combatants. On rink one the Club President Neil Haines scored a thrilling one point victory with 47 points ahead of the consistent Phillip Cunningham 46 points. Next door on rink two, Ray Hanson displayed some copybook bowling to amass 48 points to finish in front of Frank Chugg with 43. Hanson was apparently conscious of the fact John van den Bosch was unavailable on the day! Lorraine Appleby was in fine form to score 49 points and enjoy a victory over next best Margaret Dowie on 45 points. Scrounge will continue while the good weather continues. Play begins at 1.00pm - names to be listed prior to 12.45pm.

The club members were saddened to learn of the passing of former member Les Forster last week. Les Forster claimed the club championship title in 2003-2004 and was highly involved in the Sixty and Over competition over the years. Forster enjoyed success in the local tournaments which he enjoyed immensely and partnered Rick Hasty in the club Vick Family Haphazard Pairs. His commitment to the operation of the club was always acknowledged both on the committee and his zest for the working bees when required. Sincere condolences to Lorrie and family.

With most of the improvements almost completed around the club, the President Neil Haines and members offer thanks to Dennis Smith who carried out the duties of painting.
