25TH MILESTONE FOR VINTAGE RALLY

Well, that's another Rally done and dusted (my boots showed clear evidence of the dust) and what a magnificent weekend it was, with weather and attendance.

The organizing committee would like to thank everyone who attended, both exhibitors and visitors, without your support there would be no Rally.

We would also like to thank all of our volunteers and community members, we had some new faces with us this year, which is very encouraging for the future of this event. The way Lockington locals pitch in to help put this show on really does help not just the Heritage Complex but the whole town. A BIG thank you to everyone who helped.

A very BIG shout out to our sponsors too... O'Connors - Echuca (Case IH), Shannons, Campaspe Shire Council and Community Bank Elmore, Lockington and Rochester (Bendigo Bank). The great support of our sponsors allowed us to do a few special things for our 25th Anniversary.

“Lockington - Lines in Time”

Hello again Everyone,

We've been looking back at the newspapers of the day to learn how people fared in our district, from the Selection Era of the 1860s and 70s until the township of Lockington was formed. We've reached February 1895 to find that the 1894-5 harvest had been completed and the roads had become very dusty as farmers carted their grain to the nearest rail stop. Construction of a railway line through the district would have made conditions so much easier but, though the residents had persistently campaigned for such a facility for almost twenty years, their efforts had been unsuccessful. The harvest, though not coming up to expectations, had yielded "fairly well" but the low price being paid for grain would "not leave much profit for the farmer," according to a report submitted to the Bendigo Advertiser on 6 February by their Tennyson correspondent.

It is hard to say if the dusty roads were a contributory factor but there were some unfortunate accidents in the district that summer. On 30 December 1894, a Mr Walter Lambert who had been working for a Mr McDowall near Rochester, was found lying unconscious on the Bamawm road, having apparently fallen from his horse. He died in the Echuca hospital three days later. The incident was reported in the Riverine Herald, and also in the Melbourne Argus on 3 January 1895. On 24 January, Mr James C Whinfield, a well-known sheep breeder from Bamawm, was killed at Diggora, when the dray he was driving hit a tree at the roadside and capsized on top of him. A report of the accident and the subsequent inquiry appeared in the Riverine Herald and in the Melbourne Age on 25 January 1895. In addition to its report of the Whinfield accident, the Bendigo Advertiser of that date also reported the accidental death at Gundagai, New South Wales, of William Maloney, aged 32 years, and formerly of Diggora.

Despite ongoing heat and rough roads, the people of the district were able to maintain social contacts; mainly through church functions, with a new Wesleyan Church opening at Pine Grove on 3 February that year, but also through the activities of the various Mutual Improvement Association groups, and the cricket clubs. Cause for a gathering of a different kind was a field trial of McKay's "Sunshine" harvester, which took place on Mr Charles Raper's farm at Pannoomilloo in the last week of January 1895, and was reported in the Kerang Times on 29 January. The trial was attended by a number of farmers and proved very successful.

On 2 February 1895, the Age reported that the rabbit pest had attained "alarming proportions in the Terricks district." The farmers were "in despair, some of the crops having been almost ruined." Government assistance was being sought for the purchase of wire netting, and to reduce freight costs on poisons to be used for rabbit extermination. On 12 March, a notice appeared in the Bendigo Advertiser warning of the danger of placing "this vermin destroyer" within reach of cattle, as a Rochester farmer had lost two fine bullocks "through carelessness in distributing poison." Foxes too, were becoming a nuisance in Pannoomilloo, with the Advertiser reporting that several farmers there had lost poultry.

The weather continued warm and dry but, as reported by the Tennyson correspondent to the Bendigo Independent of 19 February 1895, there was "plenty of water and feed in the paddocks for the stock." Dairying was being practised more widely throughout the district and, at Mr Clifford Sims's creamery, an expert in cheesemaking was in attendance to give lessons in the latest improved systems. The Bendigo Advertiser reported on 6 February that at least three well-known northern district dairymen were "now going in for cheesemaking in preference to butter."

On 10 February 1895, Pannoomilloo lost a valued member of one of its earliest selector families, when Mrs Charlotte Ham, the wife of Mr Henry M Ham, of the local post-office passed away. Mrs Ham was 62 years old, and notice of her death appeared in the Elmore Standard on 15 February. On that same date, the Melbourne Age carried a report of the magisterial inquiry into the sudden death of Clifford, the ten-week-old son of Mr and Mrs George Singer of Bamawm. Sadly, the baby had died from whooping cough and diarrhoea. As reported in the Bendigo Advertiser on 22 March 1895, another loss due to a sudden death in the district, occurred in Pannobamawm, on 21 March, when Miss Johanna McAuliffe succumbed to a severe attack of enteritis. She was just 28 years old.

Mid-March brought a welcome cool change to the district. However, it was not until late April, when farmers had already begun preparing ground for sowing, that a thunderstorm crossed the district bringing some much-needed heavy showers to end the long dry spell. The Bendigo Advertiser reported on 3 May 1895, that 105 points [26.25 mms] had fallen in Tennyson, enabling the farmers "to get on with cropping." Other news of interest to the local farming community, was published in the Bendigo Independent on 4 April, and in the Bendigo Advertiser on 10 April 1895. It concerned the forming of a Farmers' Union to promote the farmers' interests generally. Unfortunately, such a group could do nothing to influence the weather. By 26 June, the Bendigo Advertiser was again describing conditions on the northern plains as being "still very dry, and, in consequence, grass is scarce and crops backward."

'Bye until next time,

Marg O'Brien.

THE LIONS PRIDE

Wednesday night, 12th April, the Lions Club witnessed the induction of a new member, Brendan Pentreath. Des, his father, was mightily impressed to see a family member follow in his footsteps. Past District Governor Headley Moon, from Rochester Lions did the honors with the ceremony. Welcome Brendan to our Club and hope you enjoy the camaraderie with the members.

RALLY FEEDBACK FROM EXHIBITORS AND VISITORS

Peter Walsh MP
LOCKINGTON
VINTAGE RALLY
IS A SHOWCASE
OF HISTORY

There was a big turnout from far and wide for the annual Lockington Vintage Rally, enjoying the perfect weather and catching up with old friends and making new ones.

I don't want to start a debate about which color tractors are better, but there was a line-up of beautifully restored John Deere tractors.

As the saying goes 'Nothing runs like a Deere' and these were in perfect showroom condition.

Dawn Arthrell

RACV'S ADVISE TO PEDESTRIANS, CYCLISTS, MOBILITY SCOOTERS ETC.

Walking is something most of us engage in almost every day, but how familiar are you with the pedestrian road rules in Victoria?

When travelling on foot, you probably don't think as much about the road rules. Why would you – you're not travelling in a vehicle. But pedestrians (which includes not just those on foot but also those pushing a bicycle, or using a wheeled device such as a skateboard, roller skates or rollerblades, wheelchairs and mobility scooters) are bound by several road rules just as their cyclist and motorist counterparts are.

In most cases it's illegal for pedestrians to walk on the road. However, in the case that there is no footpath or nature strip available, pedestrians are permitted to walk on the road but should travel along the oncoming traffic side of the road (so that you can easily see approaching vehicles).

PLAYGROUP FUN

"We had a fantastic turn out at playgroup for our last session before the holidays, and the kids were lucky enough to have had the easter bunny leave some treats outside for them!

Playgroup will return Friday 28th of April for a new term of fun and crafts. Starting time will change slightly to 9.30am instead of 9am.

New families are always welcome and encouraged to come and check it out."

MEDIA RELEASE

Peter WALSH
MEMBER FOR MURRAY PLAINS | LEADER OF THE NATIONALS

A better deal
for Murray Plains
NATIONALS
for Regional Victoria

14 April 2023

DAN'S DEPOSIT SCHEME COMING UP
MORE THAN A DOLLAR SHORT SAYS WALSH

The Nationals leader and Member for Murray Plains, Peter Walsh, has slammed the Andrews Labor government's Container Deposit Scheme as an "opportunity wasted and another slap in the face of regional Victorian business".

Mr Walsh says the contracts to run this long overdue grassroots recycling scheme – which will now launch on November 1 – have gone to a company not based in Victoria, and two multinationals.

He says there were several viable regional options – including a syndicate put together by Shepparton's Foott Waste Solutions – to make this a local program which would have also created local employment opportunities.

"In what world does Daniel Andrews think this is a good deal?" Mr Walsh says.

"Visy is a monolithic enterprise, yet it has been given exclusive access to all northern Victoria for the scheme.

"TOMRA Cleanaway is also a multinational and while you see its brand everywhere, the work it will do could be done as well – and probably better – by a local business," he says.

"And return-it's own website shows it has operations in Queensland, NSW, WA and ACT – but there's nothing in Victoria.

"Yet this business also gets roughly a third of the state to run this operation.

"I'm sorry, but if it wasn't so ludicrous and so insulting, it would be laughable. It reads like a Monty Python skit."

Mr Walsh says there were also proposals from recyclers in Horsham, Geelong and Gippsland – and they have all been ignored.

He says with the government spruiking 600 refund collection points across the state, "surely smaller, local recyclers would have been the go in regional Victoria".

"Victorians have been waiting for years to get access to a service such as this, and when it finally arrives it appears to have been a deal done behind closed doors – again," Mr Walsh added.

"When contracts are awarded to businesses outside the state it leaves you gobsmacked – this is the Premier who says he governs for all Victorians, so what went wrong here?" he says.

"At a time when the economy is under all sorts of pressure, why would you waste revenue opportunities on this scale when it could have been usefully invested in local businesses, local jobs and local economies.

"After blowing billions of taxpayer dollars on its botched Big Bill project in Melbourne, Andrews Inc has once again showed it still has no idea how to manage anything in the economy and is even managing to botch relatively small schemes."

INTO THE FLOOD INQUIRY SUBMISSION SAYS WALSH

The Nationals leader and Member for Murray Plains, Peter Walsh, says the clock isn't just ticking, it is now counting down for people wanting to make a submission to the Legislative Council's Environment and Planning Committee's inquiry into the 2022 flood event.

And it runs out for good on May 8.

Mr Walsh says it is essential for anyone impacted by the floods – and that doesn't just mean inundated – makes a submission because without as many as possible the committee will struggle to ensure a fair and accurate review of the flood event, including shortfalls by government and government agencies.

He says it is no good hoping someone else does it, or sitting back and complaining about recommendations made if you are not part of the process.

"Those caught on the frontline, who were flooded, forced to flee their homes and properties and businesses, are the ones with the best possible evidence of the full impact," Mr Walsh says.

"But if your job was stood down, or your business could not work because your staff could not reach you, or anything else happened as a result of water anywhere, you need to make a submission. If your insurance has gone through the roof, you need to make a submission," he says.

"It doesn't have to be a thesis, a concise and accurate one-page summary will more than suffice, but you must do it."

Mr Walsh says the government needs to hear the truth about the October floods.

He says the Andrews Labor government has tried to set up its own inquiries into various failings with their own handpicked experts.

"This is not good enough. They need to hear from real Victorians with real experiences of the floods," Mr Walsh added.

"The more submissions received guarantees a more accurate picture of Victoria's flood preparedness and response and will highlight any shortfalls that need addressing."

ANDREWS PULLS THE WELCOME MAT FROM UNDER
HUNDREDS OF HOMELESS FAMILIES SAYS WALSH

The leader of The Nationals and Member for Murray Plains, Peter Walsh, says the cash-starved Andrews Labor government has betrayed homeless Victorians by selling hundreds of public housing properties despite record waitlists.

Mr Walsh says recently released figures from the Victorian Housing Register confirm almost 70,000 Victorians need public housing and despite the clear and growing need for additional public housing, ongoing sales of public properties has seen Victoria's total public housing stock grow by "a pathetic 74 properties since 2018".

Yet he says he believes providing affordable housing to Victoria's more vulnerable is one of the most basic commitments for a competent government.

"Daniel Andrews' total mismanagement of Victoria's public housing stock means far too many people, people we know, who might be friends or even family, are struggling to get a roof over their heads," Mr Walsh says.

"Across my electorate the cost of private housing and the soaring rental market have squeezed hundreds, even thousands, out of the opportunity to have secure accommodation and Daniel Andrews is making that worse, not better," he says.

"Quality and stable housing is critical to give vulnerable Victorians the best chance to reach their potential, yet under this government, waiting lists continue to grow whilst housing stock remains stagnant.

"With Homes Victoria $250 million in deficit, the Andrews Government must explain why it continues to sell off so many public housing properties and what it is doing with the money raised.

"Although you don't have to be Einstein to work it out – this Premier is fast-tracking us towards bankruptcy and if he hadn't wasted more than $30 billion on so many projects nowhere near completion, we could provide a $400,000 house for every one of those 70,000 families trapped in the housing wilderness.

"There is no excuse for this kind of failure of government – I trust the Premier is sleeping comfortably tonight."

LOCKINGTON BOWLS CLUB REPORT

The Club events are coming to a close as the season ends, however there will still be social events taking place during the winter.

Last Friday the women’s 100 up final was decided with Jenny Fisher and Kim Ray playing off in a very close game, Jenny finally winning 109 to 101. Congratulations to both girls.

The Men’s “B” grade Championship final was also played between Brian Kinnane and Lloyd Buchanan. This too proved to be a very close game with Brian finally declared the winner after 27 ends by 4 shots 25 to 21.

The Campaspe District held their Veterans Day at Lockington last Wednesday with 48 players competing in a mixed social game of 10 ends. This event for players who reach the age of 80 has not been held for 3 years due to COVID. Clubs represented were Elmore, Lockington, Echuca, Rich River and Deniliquin. At the end of the day winners were decided on a draw of cards. After a delicious afternoon tea provided by the Lockington Ladies, the Super Veterans were presented with their badges.
