ANZAC'S NOT FORGOTTEN IN LOCKINGTON

Lockington Community Centre was crowded with locals and visitors for the ANZAC day commemorative service.

Of special note, and appreciation, was the participation of students of Lockington Consolidated School as flag bearers leading the march, School captains reading the recitation, then their presentation of "You Raise Me Up" with a student doing sign language bought tears to many an eye.

Heads nodded in agreement as John Munro read the poem, "Memory of Pat Crough".

The commemorative address was given by Captain Cameron Lovering, President of Rochester RSL, who pointed out that 2023 marked 108 years to the day from when the first ANZACs arrived on the shores of Turkey, and reminded us of why we should always remember, 'Lest We Forget'.

LETTER TO THE COMMUNITY

Fifteen attended the Lockington Community News public meeting held Tuesday, May 2nd, compared to twenty-eight who attended the first meeting on 1 March. The results of the survey were given which showed 'yes' to be higher than the 'no' questions, except for someone to assist with the Locky News.

Retiring Vice President, Beryl Marshall, announced that two volunteers, who live remotely, have offered to help with the Editors role, but not on a permanent basis, preferring if locals can take on the role. The then Executive chose not to implement the recommendation of paying an Editor given the AGM that night and changes to office bearers. At the Extraordinary Annual Meeting, the following Executive elected (who will officially take over on May 16) are President Alison Stewart, Vice President not elected, Secretary Mark Ryan, Treasurer Stephen Hulme. The Committee consists of Deb Taylor, Pam Roberts, Valerie Cook, Colleen Van Den Bosch, Paul Harrison. Note the position of Vice President was not filled. To assist with the governance of the Locky News I hope a reader will offer their services, and perhaps attend the 'hand-over meeting at 7.00pm on May 16.

On a personal note, Alison Stewart has produced a high quality Locky News, of course with the help of improved technology, which has evolved since the beginning of the paper in 1983. You, a member of this community, may be in fear of handling such a role, but please consider 'giving it a go,' you can be guided. The idea is to inform the community. The set-out of your publication may vary to suit your ability, and we the public should not compare with what has been. I hope for the sake of the Community the Locky News will continue to run for more than the incredible forty years.

Beryl Marshall. (Tel: 0428 862 353)

“Lockington - Lines in Time”

Hello again Everyone,

We've been looking back at the newspapers of the day to learn how people fared in our district, from the Selection Era of the 1860s and 70s until the township of Lockington was formed. By mid-1895, the crops were sown, despite ongoing dry conditions, and the residents of the northern plains were ready to concentrate on other topics, like recreation for example. As reported in the Bendigo Advertiser on 14 June, “a concert and ball in aid of the Milloo Cricket Club,” held in Mrs O'Brien's Hall at Tennyson, “was exceedingly well attended.” There were also public meetings, one of which was held at Tennyson on 29 June, to nominate Trustees for the Milloo recreation reserve. This gathering also allowed for a meeting of the provisional committee, which had been elected in April, to facilitate the forming of a local Farmers' Union. At this second meeting, a code of rules was drawn up, and was duly submitted to a subsequent public meeting, held on 12 July 1895. The rules were adopted, and officials were elected. In reporting this public meeting, the Bendigo Advertiser of 16 July, stated that “All present were unanimous in the forming of a union, and it is expected that 200 will join. A movement is to be started for the formation of other branches throughout the colony.”

Two weddings of local interest took place in the winter of 1895. The first was celebrated at Pannooabamawm, on 26 June, when Miss Alice Nankivell, the eldest daughter of Mr Robert H Nankivell, surveyor, of Piavella, was married to Mr James McKay, a well-known resident of Maryborough. Then, on 10 July, Miss Ruth Matilda Bray, third daughter of Mr Rupert H Bray, farmer, of Milloo, was married to Mr Harry Lea, eldest son of Mr Charles Lea, farmer, of Wanurp. Their wedding took place at the local Church of England, the ceremony being performed by Rev W C Sadlier, of St Paul's, Bendigo, assisted by the Rev C H Zercho.

Almost three years earlier, in October 1892, a decision had been made to establish a co-operative butter factory in Rochester. Progress had been slow but on 5 July 1895, as reported in the Bendigo Advertiser of that date, the contract had been signed for the erection of the building to house the factory. The contractors expected to make a start on construction that week. At the time, the outlook for dairying, and for almost any type of farming on the northern plains, was bleak. Only light showers had fallen over the winter months and the Piavella correspondent wrote to the Advertiser on 15 July, that crops and grass were very backward, and the district's oldest resident had “never experienced another such year.” The local creamery had closed due to there being insufficient milk available to keep it open.

Rain fell in August 1895, and correspondents from Pine Grove East, Tennyson and Piavella wrote to the Advertiser and to the Bendigo Independent to pass on the good news, and to express the hope that ‘follow-up rains’ might ensure that the crops in the district might not all be failures. Unfortunately, by 13 September, the Piavella correspondent wrote again to the Bendigo Advertiser, saying that the weather was dry – “so dry that the grass is withering away – and the crops are looking wretched.” To the Independent, the Piavella correspondent wrote ten days later, that stock looked like “walking skeletons,” and crops were a total failure. Showers fell again in early October but, reporting the rain to the Independent on 4 October, the Tennyson correspondent stated that it was too late for many crops as they were “completely dead.”

There was a variety of other news throughout the district. The Wanurp Post Office had been closed, with mails being handled through Mitiamo after July 1895. On 13 September 1895, as reported in the Melbourne Age on 16 September, a five-roomed house at the Terricks, owned by Mr Joseph Lyons, was totally destroyed by fire. The newly-formed Farmers' Union was attracting good attendances at its evening meetings held in the State School at Tennyson. A series of social evenings, held at the Tennyson Hall through the winter months, had been “exceedingly enjoyable,” but towards the end of Spring, the news was less encouraging. On 5 October 1895, the Bendigo Independent reported that influenza was prevalent in Tennyson – present in “all families” and “particularly severe on elderly people.” On 24 October, the Bendigo Advertiser carried the sad news that influenza had caused the death of Mrs George Harrison of Pannoomilloo, and at Milloo the community mourned the loss of Mr John Steen, one of their oldest and most respected residents. The drought conditions continued unabated, and its economic effects were being felt not only by the farmers, but also by the business people in the towns.

However, it must have needed more than a harsh season to destroy the spirit of the people of the northern plains; the prospect of a dance or a ball could still “tempt them out from their homes to enjoy a night's amusement.” Such an occasion was the ball held on 31 October 1895, to celebrate the conclusion of the Wharparilla Assembly's dancing season. The Riverine Herald reported on 8 November, that the venue – Mr C Anderson's large barn – was artistically decorated, and had an excellent floor for the purpose; the attendance was very large, the ladies beautifully attired, and the music was all that could be desired. A nicely-laid-out supper was served shortly after midnight, after which dancing was resumed until “cock's crow.” An enjoyable time was had by all.

‘Bye until next time,
Marg O'Brien.

VALE ANDY RANKIN

The committee of Lockington &
 District Living Heritage Complex Inc.
 wish to offer their deepest sympathy to the family of Andy Rankin.

Andy did a lot of work in establishing the Heritage Complex and supported us over many years in a variety of ways.

Not only was Andy instrumental in the Complex, but he also left his mark on Lockington and district building sheds etc., the fountain and Locky Ness Moster which he created and was opened at the start of this Millenium, 1st January, 2000. For approximately 30 years he operated the filtration at our swimming pool.

Rest in peace Andy and thank you.

Helping farmers out of the mud webinar now online

Do you recognise the signs exhibited by people suffering from stress and fatigue? How do you respond? Are you aware of the appropriate assistance and helpful resources available to help them through the tough times?

These were just some of points covered by the successful webinars produced and delivered by the National Centre for Farmer Health (NCFH) to help agricultural advisors and service providers working with farm families immediately after the floods and the ongoing months of flood recovery.

A recording of this informative webinar, which attracted more than 80 participants, is now available to all on the NCFH website www.farmerhealth.org.au/buildingfarmspirit.

NCFH flood recovery response project officer, Sally Cunningham, said while the floods may seem like so long ago, it is only now that the stress and fatigue of it all will start to take a hold on farmers, farm families and farm workers.

“Service providers and trusted agricultural advisors play a really important role in assisting farmers through the flood recovery journey,” Ms Cunningham said.

“This webinar helped them to recognise and respond to farmer stress, highlighted appropriate assistance and resources available and then reflect on how to protect themselves from risks to their own mental health.”

Ms Cunningham said the National Centre for Farmer Health has posted a video of the popular webinar on its website to meet the demand for this information coming from the wider community across Australia.

“While targeted to agricultural advisors, it will help people to recognise and respond to farmers exhibiting significant signs of stress, learn where to refer farmers for appropriate assistance and helpful resources, and show how to look after yourself when supporting others.”

Hot and hotter

Aji Peanut Chili's are flourishing in the community garden and create a good boost in your immunity system. They are rich in vitamins and minerals but are usually only eaten in small amounts. A rare Baccatum variety from South America, they are a prolific chili that has a sweet flavour but still pack a punch with their heat. This makes them especially suited to spice up hot soups, create flavoursome sauces or to lift the taste of chicken or beef dishes.

Charitable organisations, and places in crisis benefit from used stamps, which are sorted and sold overseas to stamp collectors.

Please save your stamps and give to Beryl Marshall, 2 Burns Street, Lockington, or Anne Hutchinson at Lockington Business Centre.

If you're not sure, and don't want to trim, please cut a large margin (perhaps 1/4 of the envelope), or give the whole envelope. Pre-franked envelopes? Please give the whole envelope. Also stamp books are appreciated.

With technology postage stamps are becoming rare, so please help those less fortunate.

NATIONALS USE THEIR UNITED FRONT TO HAMMER DOWN AEMO DOOR OF SECRECY

The Nationals have hit the Australian Energy Market Operator (AEMO) with a united front to hammer home the message regional Victoria deserves the respect of proper community engagement and communication with all stakeholders for the proposed power link between Victoria and NSW.

The Nationals leader and Member for Murray Plains, Peter Walsh, deputy leader and Member for Lowan, Emma Kealy, and Member for Mildura, Jade Benham, met with AEMO this afternoon to detail the frustration and anger of producers across Victoria with the lack of consulting with the communities this project will most affect.

Mr Walsh says the advantage of having Nationals members in most regional seats means when a delegation representing the three electorates involved in this project walk in the front door, people have to sit up and listen.

He says the original plan was an upgrade to the existing 220kv line from Ballarat to Kerang via Bendigo, but “out of the blue” AEMO has blindsided farming communities with its Option 5 update.

“With just two weeks until a decision, it was vital AEMO very clearly understand the potential damage of its latest about face on this major infrastructure project,” Mr Walsh added.

“Option 5 is a 500 kilovolt (kV) double-circuit overhead transmission line, connecting to the Western Renewables Link at Bulgana and to EnergyConnect at Dinawan Energy Hub in NSW via a new terminal station near Kerang,” he says.

“It will gut incredibly valuable, irreplaceable farmland, including irrigation districts across the Mallee, with massive towers and miles of high-voltage cables stretching across them – that is simply wrong, and everyone knows it.”

Emma Kealy says by having the whole project covered by Nationals seats they were able to speak on behalf of all their communities at the sit-down with AEMO.

She says The Nationals also gave AEMO a lesson in how to best engage with people who “find themselves in the path of progress”.

“The community engagement throughout this process has been a joke, it’s no wonder there is so much confusions as well as frustration – and fear about the future,” Ms Kealy says.

“No-one doubts our power delivery system needs this upgrade, but we don’t have too do this much damage to prime country to achieve that outcome – you can’t eat electricity,” she says.

Jade Benham says she found genuine strength in numbers when joining her more experienced party leaders for the AEMO meeting.

She says their grasp of the issues, their better awareness of the problems was because, unlike AEMO, the three MPs had engaged in “real dialogue” with their constituents.

“Instead of being properly and fairly consulted, and given clear briefings on the proposals, locals are being blitzed by high level, jargon-heavy information so AEMO can tick a box and say it has consulted,” Ms Benham says.

“This is a sham process, a Clayton’s consultation,” she added.

“And it’s not just sour grapes by these farmers, even the best and brightest energy market experts have been damning of the strategy.

“Professor Simon Bartlett AM (previously a member of the National Electricity Market’s Reliability Panel, a Professor of Electrical Engineering and Chief Operating Officer of Powerlink) and Professor Bruce Mountain (Director of the Victoria Energy Policy Centre at Victoria University) have released a detailed critique of AEMO’s plans.

“It is deeply disturbing the experts are pulling apart AEMO’s plans and calling it a monumental mistake with an enormous risk of failure, but not as disturbing as the project steamrolling ahead regardless,” Ms Benham says.

Peter Walsh says “instead, what we are getting are city-centric Federal and State Labor governments pushing forward with an agenda, taking a politically expedient road without a second thought for how it impacts Mallee farmers and their communities”. “And forget the power for just a minute and ask yourself, how are these fantasists planning to replace the lost food production – more imports from their mates in China?”

LOCKINGTON BOWLS CLUB REPORT

1st May

The Lockington Bowls Club held a big weekend of bowls to finish the 2022-2023 season.

On Saturday the annual Moama Bowling Club sponsored Open Fours attracted a field of 104 bowlers to enjoy the ideal greens and hospitality. Clubs represented included Castlemaine, Cohuna, Echuca, Elmore, Gunbower, Inglewood, Lake Boga, Lockington, Moama, Pyramid Hill, Rich River, Rochester, Stanhope and Tongala. Club President Neil Haines welcomed all bowlers and thanked all for their continued support and trusted that they enjoyed conditions on offer.

At the completion of the four games of ten ends, there were four teams undefeated. The winners were decided on a Points system and Shots up. The winners of the event was the powerful Gunbower rink comprising Tony Williams, John D Pearson, Peter Coates, Bill L'Huillier (s) with 105 points plus 27 shots ahead of the composite Echuca/Moama four in Garth Wiffen, John Dinsdale, Kelvin Wiffen, Steve Cunnington (s) 104 points +28 shots on a countback from the Rushworth rink of Taffy Morten, Barry Ibbott, Noel Mulchay, Sue Morten (s) scoring 104 points +19 shots with another Rushworth rink including Neville Thompson, Lyn Nicholson, Noel Lloyd, Laurie Nicholson (s) on 104 points +18 shots. Special competition winners on the day included Annette Brereton, Kevin Earl, Steve Cunnington and Matty Campbell. Tournament Secretary Chris Stewart (back from Hip surgery) thanked Russell Shawcross, Ray Hanson, Brian Kinnane, Ken Main and all members that assisted in securing all teams that competed. Club President Neil Haines thanked the women who contributed in serving the first class meals during the tournament. Haines also acknowledged the outstanding effort from Kevin Humbert and Les Brereton in preparing the immaculate greens, then thanked the Moama Bowling Club and Clive Coventry Funerals - Echuca and Kyabram for their sponsorship. The Moama Bowling Club have been involved with this tournament for the past thirty-five years and the club appreciates their on-going support.

On Sunday evening the club held their annual Presentation night with a gathering of 60 plus members and guests. The club appreciated the services of the Tongala Catering Service in providing the glorious meals on the night.

Lady President Denise Gilmore welcomed all in attendance and spoke of a successful season of bowls. The actual number of Members increased and the Barefoot bowls attracted good numbers on a regular basis. Gilmore then proceeded to make the presentation of awards with the assistance of Pauline Humbert. Club Champion: Leanne McInnes. Runner Up: Jenny Fisher. 100 Up Presidents Trophy: Jenny Fisher. Runner Up: Kim Ray. Alys Humbert Champion Pairs: Cindy Felmingham - Phylis MacFarlane (s). R/Up: Margaret Dowie - Annette Brereton (s). Pauline Humbert presented the weekly Vouchers with Phylis MacFarlane, Pauline Humbert, Lorraine Appleby and Katthi Maddison featuring prominently. Lady President Denise Gilmore presented an amount of $15,000 to club President Neil Haines as a result of their fundraising during the year. Haines responded in gracious fashion and acknowledged the point that the Ladies Committee was the backbone of most Bowling Clubs.

Club President Neil Haines then made the presentation of awards for the men's section. Club Champion: Graham Turner. R/Up: Steve Peter. B Grade Champion: Brian Kinnane. R/Up: Lloyd Buchanan. 21 Up Presidents Trophy: Steve Pavone (back to back). R/Up: Andrew Harris.

100 Up champion: Ken Main. R/Up: Graham Turner.

During the season the Barefoot Bowls attracted consistent numbers on most nights. The twelve week series provided plenty of fun and laughter plus the display of some untapped talent from several new bowlers. Remembering the fact that our Division Five pennant teams consisted of seven of the eight bowlers actually graduating from the Barefoot bowls the previous season. Over the past weeks, Peter Eade, Lloyd Buchanan, Peter Egan and Anthony Westward have dominated the bowls with Eade skipping a team to the highest winning margin of the series.

The club will hold the Annual General Meeting in the first week of June while the Women will hold their Annual General Meeting soon.

8th May

There has been some activity on the bowling greens. The popular game of Scrounge is being held on a Wednesday afternoon starting at 1.00pm. Names to be listed prior to 12.45pm. Flat sole shoes to be worn and bowls are available. An afternoon of sheer pleasure and good fellowship.

Last Wednesday the stars were shining in the first round of play. Three rinks were in operation and the bowling was heavily contested. On rink one Ray Hanson continued with his post pennant form to amass 52 points to defeat Ian Johnson on 48 points and Andy Harris 33. On rink two the scoring was really close with only one point separating the three players. Leading left-handed Frank Chugg won the battle on 54 points closely followed by John Fisher and Graham Turner both on 53 points - could not be separated. The final rink was a challenge by the four women on the day. Lady President Denise Gilmore scored a clear cut victory with 59 points followed by Jenny Fisher 32, Lorraine Appleby 30 and Lois Chugg in fourth place. An enjoyable day had by all.

The club will have Social bowls on a Saturday with the game of Jack Attack starting at 1.00pm. Roll up and have some fun.

The club thanked Steve Peter for his contribution as Club Secretary. Steve relinquished the position recently due to personal reasons plus his heavy involvement in the local Campaspe Area and the position of Vice President of the Bendigo-Campaspe-Goldfields Region. Best of luck to Steve Peter.

Several members (20 in all) travelled to Pyramid Hill on Sunday for the Seafood Classic Fours. The results are in the wind.

The Lockington Bowls Club offered sincere condolences to Norm Bacon and wife Margaret on the recent sad loss of their daughter Gail and son Robert. Our thoughts are with the extended Bacon families.

The Annual General Meeting will be held on Monday 5th June starting at 7.30pm. Nomination forms are available.

The BowlsVic State Weekend Pennant championships were held at the Moama Bowling Club on Saturday and Sunday. The Bendigo-Campaspe-Goldfields Regional winners, Bendigo Bowling Club competed in Section Two and won four of the five games, only to finish in second place behind Ocean Grove. Bendigo, Frankston and Ocean Grove all finished on 12 points. Ocean Grove continued on to defeat Deer Park in the final.

The Midweek pennant championship was played on Monday and Tuesday. The Moama Bowling Club represented the BCG Region.
